(e) by the Company or LBHI upon a final non-appealable determination by a Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction denying an approval that is necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 3.3(c) shall not be available to a party if such denial is primarily due to the failure of such party to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement;

(f) by the Company in the event (i) none of the representations and warranties of the Company shall have become and continue to be untrue in a manner that would cause the condition set forth in Section 8.2(a) not to be satisfied and there has been no failure by the Company to perform its covenants in such a manner as would cause the condition set forth in Section 8.2(b) not to be satisfied, and (ii) there shall have been a breach of LBHI's representations and warranties in this Agreement or a failure by LBHI to perform its covenants in this Agreement, in any such case in a manner that the conditions to the Closing set forth in Section 8.1(a) or Section 8.1(b) would not be satisfied if such breach or failure occurred or was continuing as of the date on which the Closing was to occur; provided, however, that the Company shall provide notice to LBHI as soon as practicable after becoming aware of any such breach described in clause (ii) above; and provided further that if such breach is curable by LBHI through the exercise of its commercially reasonable efforts then, so long as LBHI continues to exercise such commercially reasonable efforts, the Company may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 3.3(d) prior to the earlier of (A) the Termination Date and (B) the 30th day following the date LBHI receives notice of such breach from the Company and only if such breach or failure by LBHI remains uncured on such date;

(g) by LBHI in the event (i) none of the representations and warranties of LBHI shall have become and continue to be untrue in a manner that would cause the condition set forth in Section 8.1(a) not to be satisfied and there has been no failure by LBHI to perform its covenants in such a manner as would cause the condition set forth in Section 8.1(b) not to be satisfied, and (ii) there shall have been a breach of the Company's representations and warranties in this Agreement or a failure by the Company to perform its covenants in this Agreement, in any such case in a manner that the conditions to the Closing set forth in Section 8.2(a) or Section 8.2(b) would not be satisfied if such breach or failure occurred or was continuing as of the date on which the Closing was to occur; provided, however, that LBHI shall provide notice to the Company as soon as practicable after becoming aware of any such breach described in clause (ii) above; and provided further that if such breach is curable by the Company through the exercise of its commercially reasonable efforts then, so long as the Company continues to exercise such commercially reasonable efforts, LBHI may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 3.3(e) prior to the earlier of (A) the Termination Date and (B) the 30th day following the date the Company receives notice of such breach from LBHI and only if such breach or failure by the Company remains uncured on such date; or

(h) by LBHI if, at any time prior to the Closing, fewer than eighty percent (80%) of the Employee Members are employed by LBHI or its Subsidiaries.

3.4 Procedure Upon Termination. In the event of a termination by the Company or LBHI, or both, pursuant to Section 3.3, written notice thereof shall forthwith be given by the terminating party to the Company or LBHI, as applicable, and this Agreement shall terminate, and the Contribution and issuance of the Units hereunder shall be abandoned, without further action by the Company or LBHI.

3.5 Effect of Termination. In the event that this Agreement is validly terminated in accordance with Sections 3.3 and 3.4, then each of the parties shall be relieved of its duties and obligations arising under this Agreement after the date of such termination and such termination shall be without liability to each of the Company, LBHI and their respective Affiliates; provided, however, that the obligations of the parties set forth in Section 7.11 and Article X shall survive any such termination and shall be enforceable hereunder.

ARTICLE IV

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES REGARDING THE COMPANY

Except as otherwise set forth on the corresponding disclosure schedule delivered to LBHI by the Company prior to LBHI's execution of this Agreement (it being understood that any matter disclosed in a Schedule by the Company shall be deemed to constitute disclosure with respect to other representations and warranties of the Company to the extent reasonably apparent on the face of such disclosure), the Company hereby represents and warrants to LBHI that:

4.1 Organization and Good Standing.

(a) The Company is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware and has all limited liability company power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as conducted at such time.

(b) The Company is not required to qualify to do business as a limited liability company in any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

4.2 Authorization of Agreement. Subject to any approval required in a Bankruptcy Case, or other insolvency, receivership or similar proceedings, the Company has all requisite power and authority to execute and deliver each Contract, document or certificate contemplated by this Agreement to be executed by the Company in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including this Agreement, the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement and the letter agreements described in Section 4.7, the “Company Documents”) and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of each Company Document and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been, or will be, duly authorized by all requisite action on the part of the Company. Each of the Company Documents, when executed and delivered (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by the other parties hereto and thereto), will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors’ rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

4.3 Capitalization. The sole members of the Company are George Walker and Joseph Amato (the “Company Members”). The equity interests of the Company (a) are held as of the date hereof beneficially and of record by the Company Members free and clear of all Liens except transfer restrictions under applicable securities Laws and (b) are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable. Except as contemplated by this Agreement, none of the Company, any of the Company Members nor any of their respective Affiliates has issued any option or warrant covering, any right to subscribe for, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for, any equity interests in the Company.

4.4 Litigation. There are no Legal Proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company that would have a material adverse effect on the Company’s ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

4.5 Financial Advisors. No Person has acted, directly or indirectly, as a broker, finder or financial advisor for the Company or its Affiliates in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby.

4.6 Formation of the Company. The Company has been formed solely for the purpose of engaging in the transactions contemplated hereby and has not carried, and will not carry, on any business or conduct any operations, other than the execution of Company Documents, the performance of its obligations under this Agreement and the Company Documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. Except as set forth in Schedule 4.6 hereto, the Company is not a party to any contract or obligation other than this Agreement or the Company Documents, except for assets, liabilities, contracts and obligations incurred in connection with the formation of the Company and the negotiation and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements. The Company has any no assets or liabilities, except as contemplated by the Company Documents. The Company is, and has been since the date of its formation, properly treated as a “disregarded entity” or “partnership” for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Neither the Company, nor any Person on behalf of the Company, has elected pursuant to Treasury Regulations 301.7701-3 to treat the Company as an “association taxable as a corporation” for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

4.7 Arrangement with Employee Members. Each portfolio manager and member of senior management listed on Schedule 4.7, as such schedule may be amended, from time to time, pursuant to Section 10.10, (each, an “Employee Member”) has entered into, or will have entered into prior to the Closing, a letter agreement with the Company regarding his or her continued employment with the Business following the Closing (the “Employee Letter Agreements”), and each such executed Employee Letter Agreement as of the Execution Date has been provided to LBHI on or prior to the Execution Date.

4.8 Acknowledgement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Company acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) LBHI is not making any representations or warranties whatsoever, express or implied, beyond those expressly given by LBHI in Article V or any certificates given in connection with the Closing (as modified by the Schedules referred to in the introductory paragraph to Article V (to the extent specified therein));

(b) except for the covenants herein and in the Ancillary Agreements and except for the representations and warranties contained in Article V or any certificates given in connection with the Closing, the Business being contributed hereunder (including all of the Purchased Assets) is being transferred on a “where is” and, as to condition, “as is” basis;

(c) the Company has not been induced by, or relied upon, any representations, warranties or statements (written or oral, express or implied, or otherwise), made by any Person, that are not expressly set forth in Article V or any certificates given in connection with the Closing (and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company acknowledges that, except for such representations and warranties, (i) no representations or warranties are made with respect to any projections, forecasts, estimates, budgets or prospect information that may have been made available to the Company or any of its Affiliates or Representatives, and (ii) none of LBHI or its Affiliates will have or be subject to any liability to the Company or any other Person resulting from the distribution or making available to the Company or its Representatives (or their use of) any such information or any information contained in any confidential memoranda relating to the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company or contained in any “data rooms” to which the Company or its Representatives may have been given access); and

(d) the Company has conducted, to its satisfaction, its own independent investigation of the condition, operations, business and prospects of the Business, the Business Entities and their Subsidiaries.

ARTICLE V

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES REGARDING LBHI

Except as otherwise set forth on the corresponding disclosure schedule delivered to the Company by LBHI (it being understood that any matter disclosed in a Schedule by LBHI shall be deemed to constitute disclosure with respect to other representations and warranties of LBHI to the extent reasonably apparent on the face of such disclosure), LBHI hereby represents and warrants to the Company that:

5.1 Organization and Good Standing. LBHI is a corporation, duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction in which it is currently registered.

5.2 Authorization of Agreement. Subject to any approval required in a Bankruptcy Case, LBHI has all requisite power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and each other agreement, document or certificate contemplated by this Agreement or to be executed by LBHI in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the "LBHI Documents"), and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the LBHI Documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite action on the part of LBHI. This Agreement has been, and each of the LBHI Documents will be at or prior to the Closing, duly and validly executed and delivered by LBHI and (assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by the other parties hereto and thereto) this Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligations of LBHI, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar Laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity, including principles of commercial reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

5.3 Ownership of Interests. LBHI, directly or indirectly, owns 100% of the equity interests of each Acquired Subsidiary outstanding free and clear of any and all Liens (other than transfer restrictions under applicable Laws).

5.4 Conflicts and Consents.

(a) Except as set forth on Schedule 5.4(a), (and assuming the making of the filings and notifications, and receipt of the consents, waivers, approvals, Orders, Permits, Contracts and authorizations contemplated by Section 5.4(b) or listed on Schedule 5.4(a)(ii)), none of the execution and delivery by LBHI of the LBHI Documents, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or compliance by LBHI or any applicable Subsidiaries of LBHI with any of the provisions hereof or thereof, will conflict with, or result in any violation of or default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to a right of acceleration, additional payment, termination or cancellation under, any provision of (i) the certificate of formation or operating agreement, or comparable charter and organizational documents, of LBHI, any Subsidiary of LBHI or any Fund, (ii) any Contract to which LBHI, any Subsidiary of LBHI or any Fund is a party, (iii) any Order of any Governmental Body applicable to LBHI, any Subsidiary of LBHI, any Fund or by which any of their respective properties or assets are bound or (iv) any applicable Law, other than, in the case of clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv), such conflicts, violations, defaults, terminations or cancellations that would not have a material adverse effect on LBHI's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Subject to any approval required in a Bankruptcy Case, except as set forth on Schedule 5.4(b), no consent, waiver, approval, Order, Permit, Contract or authorization of, or declaration or filing with, or notification to, any Governmental Body is required on the part of LBHI, any Subsidiary of LBHI or any Fund in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the LBHI Documents or the compliance by LBHI, any Subsidiary of LBHI or any Fund with any of the provisions hereof or thereof, or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, other than (i) FINRA and other applicable Self-Regulatory Organization notifications or consents, (ii) filings, consents, approvals or notices required under the Investment Company Act or the Investment Advisers Act, (iii) compliance with the applicable requirements of the HSR Act and (iv) those the failure of which to obtain or make would not have a material adverse effect on the LBHI's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

5.5 Subsidiaries. The outstanding shares of capital stock or comparable equity ownership interests of each of the Business Entities and each of their respective Subsidiaries are validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, and, following the Contribution and the Closing, all such shares or other equity interests will be wholly-owned, directly or indirectly, by the Company free and clear of any and all Liens except transfer restrictions under applicable securities Laws. None of LBHI, any Subsidiary of LBHI, any Business Entity or any Subsidiary of any Business Entity has issued any option or warrant covering, any right to subscribe for, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for, any shares of capital stock of, or comparable equity ownership interests in, any Business Entity or any Subsidiary of a Business Entity.

5.7 Financial Advisors. Except for Barclays Capital Inc. and Lazard Freres & Co. LLC, the fees and expenses of which shall be borne by LBHI, no Person has acted, directly or indirectly, as a broker, finder or financial advisor for LBHI or its Affiliates (including its Subsidiaries) in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby.

5.8 Investment Intention. LBHI is acquiring all Units to be issued by the Company to it at the Closing pursuant to the terms of this Agreement for its own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to the distribution thereof in contravention of any Law. LBHI is an “accredited investor,” as such term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Units. LBHI understands that the Units have not been registered under the Securities Act or any other securities or “blue sky” law and cannot be sold unless subsequently registered or an exemption from registration is available.

5.9 Disclosure of Information. LBHI acknowledges that it has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the offering of the Units to be sold pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and the business, properties, prospects and financial condition of the Company. LBHI also acknowledges that it (a) has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters such that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in the Company, and (b) is able to bear the financial risks associated with an investment in the Units to be sold pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

5.10 General. LBHI understands that the Units to be sold pursuant to the terms of this Agreement are being offered and sold in reliance on an exemption from the registration requirements of federal and state securities laws and the Company is relying upon the truth and accuracy of, and compliance with, the representations, warranties, agreements, acknowledgments and understandings of LBHI set forth herein in order to determine the applicability of such exemptions and the suitability of LBHI to acquire the Units to be sold pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. LBHI understands that no federal or state agency or any government or governmental agency has passed upon or made any recommendation or endorsement of the Units to be sold pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

5.11 No General Solicitation. LBHI acknowledges that the Units to be sold pursuant to the terms of this Agreement were not offered to LBHI by means of any form of general or public solicitation or general advertising, or publicly disseminated advertisements or sales literature, including (a) any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine, or similar media, or broadcast over television or radio, or (b) any seminar or meeting to which LBHI was invited by any of the foregoing means of communications.

5.12 Acknowledgement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, LBHI acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) the Company is not making any representations or warranties whatsoever, express or implied, beyond those expressly given by the Company in Article IV or any certificates given in connection with the Closing (as modified by the Schedules referred to in the introductory paragraph to Article IV (to the extent specified therein));

(b) except for the covenants herein and in the Ancillary Agreements and except for the representations and warranties contained in Article IV or any certificates given in connection with the Closing, the Units being sold hereunder are being sold on a “where is” and, as to condition, “as is” basis;

(c) LBHI has not been induced by, or relied upon, any representations, warranties or statements (written or oral, express or implied, or otherwise), made by any Person, that are not expressly set forth in Article IV or any certificates given in connection with the Closing (and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, LBHI acknowledges that, except for such representations and warranties, (i) no representations or warranties are made with respect to any projections, forecasts, estimates, budgets or prospect information that may have been made available to LBHI or any of its Affiliates or Representatives, and (ii) none of the Company or its Affiliates will have or be subject to any liability to LBHI or any other Person resulting from the distribution or making available to LBHI or its Representatives (or their use of) any such information or any information contained in any confidential memoranda relating to the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company or contained in any “data rooms” to which LBHI or its Representatives may have been given access); and

(d) LBHI has conducted, to its satisfaction, its own independent investigation of the condition, operations, business and prospects of the Company, the Business, the Business Entities and their Subsidiaries.

ARTICLE VII

COVENANTS

7.1 Conduct of the Company Pending the Closing. Prior to the Closing, except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement (including the actions taken or to be taken in connection with the Contribution or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby), the agreements set forth on Schedule 4.6 hereto and the matters referred to in Section 4.6, the Company shall not take any action or conduct any business, or agree to take any action or conduct any business, without the express written consent of LBHI, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

7.2 Conduct of the Business Pending the Closing. Prior to the Closing, except (a) as required by applicable Law or (b) as otherwise expressly contemplated by this Agreement (including the actions taken or to be taken in connection with the Contribution or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby), (1) LBHI shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, conduct the Business in all material respects in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, and (2) LBHI (with respect to the Business) shall not, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries not to:

(i) declare or pay any dividend or other cash distribution to the extent doing so would impair the ability of the Business to operate in the ordinary course;

(ii) issue, transfer, sell, encumber, or authorize the issuance, transfer, sale or encumbrance of, any shares of capital stock, limited liability company membership interests or other equity interests of any class, or any options, warrants, pay-in-kind securities, convertible or exchangeable securities or other rights of any kind thereto to acquire any shares of capital stock or equity interests (including any phantom interest), of any Acquired Subsidiary to any Person;

(iii) sell or license any of its material properties or assets, except (A) sales and licenses in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (B) pursuant to any Contract in effect on the Execution Date, (C) dispositions of obsolete or worthless assets, and (D) transfers between the Acquired Subsidiaries;

(iv) subject any of its material properties or assets to a Lien, except in the case of properties or assets that are not securities for Permitted Exceptions;

(v) enter into any merger or consolidation or similar transaction with or involving any Person;

(vi) adopt a plan or agreement of complete or partial liquidation or dissolution;

(vii) incur any indebtedness for borrowed money having an outstanding principal amount in excess of $5,000,000 (excluding intercompany transactions with Affiliates that will be settled prior to the Closing);

(viii) fail to make any filing, pay any fee, or take any other action necessary to maintain the ownership, validity and enforceability of any material Intellectual Property Rights related to the Business; or

(ix) agree to do anything prohibited by this Section 7.2.

7.3 Preservation of Back Office Support. LBHI will use all commercially reasonable efforts to preserve prior to the Closing the functionality of its and its Affiliates back offices and the availability of its personnel and systems that have historically provided services to the Business.

7.4 Consents. LBHI shall use, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to use, commercially reasonable efforts, and the Company shall cooperate with LBHI, to obtain at the earliest practicable date all consents (other than with respect to brokerage and investment advisory agreements, the subject matter of which is covered in Sections 7.12, 7.13 and 7.14) and approvals required to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Contribution); provided, however, that no party shall be obligated to pay any consideration (or grant any financial accommodation) to any third party from whom consent or approval is requested.

7.5 Regulatory Approvals. Subject to all of the terms and conditions hereof (including the proviso in the last sentence of Section 7.6(b)):

(a) Each of the parties hereto shall cooperate with the other parties and use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to promptly (i) take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and do, or cause to be done, all things within its control that are necessary, proper or advisable to cause the other party's conditions to Closing to be satisfied as promptly as practicable and to consummate the Closing in the most expeditious manner practicable, and (ii) to the extent it is within its control, obtain all approvals, consents, registrations, permits, authorizations and other confirmations from any Governmental Body or third party required to be obtained by it and which are necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each party hereto agrees to cooperate to make any appropriate application to FINRA.

(b) Each of the parties hereto shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to (i) cooperate in all respects with each other in connection with any filing or submission with a Governmental Body in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and in connection with any investigation or other inquiry by or before a Governmental Body relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including any such proceeding initiated by a private party, and (ii) keep the other party reasonably informed in all material respects and on a reasonably timely basis of any material communication received by such party from, or given by such party to, the FTC, FINRA, the SEC or any other Governmental Body, in each case regarding any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

7.6 Further Assurances; Etc.

(a) Subject to all of the terms and conditions hereof, each of the parties shall use its commercially reasonable efforts (i) to take all actions, both prior to and after the Closing, necessary or appropriate to consummate and implement the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Contribution) and (ii) to the extent it is within its control, to cause the fulfillment at the earliest practicable date of all of the conditions to the other party's obligations to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, from the Execution Date until the Closing, LBHI shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates not to, (A) assign or otherwise transfer from the Business to any Person any asset, right, property or interest of the Business or any Purchased Asset, or (B) assign or otherwise transfer to the Business any Liability other than any Assumed Liability.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, on and after the Closing Date, each party shall cooperate with the other party, without any further consideration, to cause to be executed and delivered, all instruments, including instruments of conveyance, assignment and transfer, and to make all filings with, and to obtain all consents, under any permit, license, agreement, indenture or other instrument, and to take all such other actions as either party may request to take by any other party from time to time, consistent with the terms of this Agreement, in order to effectuate the provisions and purposes of this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements and, to the extent necessary, (i) the transfer to the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company of any Purchased Asset and (ii) the transfer of any Excluded Asset from the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to LBHI; provided, however, that neither party shall be obligated to make any payment, incur any obligation or grant any concession to any Governmental Body in connection therewith, other than the payment of ordinary and customary fees.

(c) In the event that at any time and from time to time after the Closing, LBHI or any of its Affiliates shall receive or otherwise possess any Purchased Asset or any asset that is the property of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (other than by reason of a distribution by the Company to LBHI or such Affiliate pursuant to the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement), LBHI shall or shall cause such Affiliate to promptly transfer such asset in the form received to the Company or its applicable Subsidiaries.

(d) In the event that at any time and from time to time after the Closing, the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company shall receive or otherwise possess any Excluded Asset, the Company shall or shall cause such Subsidiary to promptly transfer such asset in the form received to LBHI. No transfer to LBHI pursuant to this Section 7.6(d) shall be considered a distribution in redemption of, or otherwise upon or in respect of, any LBHI Preferred Unit or Class A Common Unit.

7.7 Preservation of Records. Each of LBHI and the Company agree to preserve and keep the business records held by them relating to the Business for a period of seven years (or such longer period as may be required under applicable Law) from the Closing Date and shall make such business records available to the other as may be reasonably required by such party in connection with, among other things, any insurance claims by, Legal Proceedings or Tax audits against or governmental investigations of LBHI, the Company or any of their respective Affiliates (which for the purposes of this Section 7.7 shall include the Funds) to the extent required to enable LBHI or the Company, as the case may be, to comply with their respective obligations under this Agreement and each other agreement, document or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby; provided, however, that LBHI shall notify the Company if it intends to wind down its affairs prior to the end of such seven-year period and shall deliver such business records to the Company at its request.

7.8 Publicity. Except in connection with any Bankruptcy Case, neither LBHI nor the Company shall issue, or permit any of its respective Affiliates (which for the purposes of this Section 7.8 shall include the Funds) to issue, any press release or public announcement concerning this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby without obtaining the prior written approval of, in the case of LBHI, the Company and, in the case of the Company, LBHI, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, unless, in the sole judgment of LBHI or the Company, as applicable, disclosure is otherwise required by applicable Law or by the applicable rules of any stock exchange on which LBHI, the Company or any of their respective Affiliates lists securities.

7.9 Employee Benefits.

(a) [Reserved]

(b) LBHI agrees to use reasonable commercial efforts to reach agreement as soon as practicable with the trustees of the Lehman Brothers Pension Scheme (UK), the Pensions Regulator and the PPF, to obtain a clearance statement in favor of the members of the Company Group from the Pensions Regulator, under section 42 of the UK Pensions Act in respect of the transactions governed by this Agreement (including the Contribution) under which the Pensions Regulator confirms (on a basis that is not conditional upon any member of the Company Group or any associated or connected company fulfilling any obligations, other than a one-off payment to the Lehman Brothers Pension Scheme (UK) or the PPF) that it will not issue to any member of the Company Group or any of its directors, officers or employees a contribution notice under section 38 of the UK Pensions Act or (to the extent the Pensions Regulator is willing to provide such confirmation) under forthcoming amendments to the UK Pensions Act (or any other legislation) made in connection with the announcement by the UK Department for Work and Pensions dated 14 April 2008.

(c) It is agreed that LBHI and its advisers shall prepare and submit the clearance application to the Pensions Regulator and shall have principal conduct of all matters relating to the clearance application and correspondence with the Pensions Regulator, provided that LBHI shall keep the Company reasonably informed with respect to such matters and provide periodic updates. The Company agrees to reasonably cooperate with LBHI in all matters relating to the process described in Section 7.9(b) above, including without limitation by:

(i) providing any such information as may be within the control of the Company and is necessary to respond to questions raised by the trustees, the Pensions Regulator or the PPF; and

(ii) keeping LBHI promptly informed of any communications received from the Pensions Regulator, the PPF and the trustees of the Lehman Brothers Pension Scheme (UK) in relation to the clearance application and providing LBHI with draft copies of all communications relevant to the trustee discussions and clearance application at such time as will allow LBHI a reasonable opportunity to comment on such submission or communication before it is submitted; take into account any reasonable comments and promptly provide LBHI with a copy of all such communication in the form submitted except that confidential information contained in such submission or communication may be redacted.

(d) At the Company's option and to such extent as the Company may reasonably specify, the Company may directly or through one or more designated parties participate in the process referred to in Section 7.9(b), and for these purposes hold discussions with the trustees of the Lehman Brothers Pension Scheme (UK), the Pensions Regulator and the PPF, provided that the Company (or any party designated by the Company) will not hold or initiate any independent discussions with such trustees, the Pensions Regulator or the PPF without inviting and giving the LBHI a reasonable opportunity to join such discussions.

(e) For Transferred Employees, service with the Company shall be counted for vesting purposes under the Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. Retirement Plan and Lehman Brothers Savings Plan in accordance with the terms of such plans.

(f) LBHI shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use reasonable efforts to consult with the Company with respect to the allocation and timing of the payment of bonuses to be paid to any employee who is employed primarily in connection with the Business by LBHI or any of its Subsidiaries.

(g) LBHI shall have sole responsibility for "continuation coverage" obligations under the employee benefit plans that are group health plans to all Company employees and "qualified beneficiaries" of such employees for whom a "qualifying event" occurs on or prior to the Closing Date, but the Company shall have responsibility for "continuation coverage" obligations to all Company employees and "qualified beneficiaries" to the extent that a "qualifying event" occurs after the Closing Date. The phrases "continuation coverage", "qualified beneficiaries" and "qualifying event" shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in Section 4980B of the Code and Sections 601-608 of ERISA.

7.10 Tax Matters.

(a) LBHI and the Company shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law (or to the extent applicable Law does not so require), elect with the relevant Taxing Authority to treat for all purposes the Closing Date as the last day of a taxable period of each Acquired Subsidiary (including any Acquired Subsidiary that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes). If applicable Law does not require or permit the parties to close any federal state, local or foreign Tax period of any Acquired Subsidiary as of the Closing Date, or for any other taxable period of such Acquired Subsidiary that includes, but does not end on, the Closing Date (any of the foregoing, a "Straddle Period"), the allocation of Taxes as between the portion of such Straddle Period ending on and including the Closing Date and the portion of such Straddle Period beginning after the Closing Date shall be made as follows: (i) in the case of Taxes based upon income, gross receipts (such as sales Taxes) or specific transactions involving Taxes other than Taxes based upon income or gross receipts, the amount of Taxes attributable to any Straddle Period shall be determined by closing the books of such Acquired Subsidiary as of the close of the Closing Date and by treating the portion of such Straddle Period ending on and including the Closing Date and the portion beginning after the Closing Date as, respectively, separate taxable years (provided that any exemptions, allowances or deductions that are calculated on an annual basis (including but not limited to depreciation and amortization deductions) shall be allocated between the period ending on the Closing Date and the period ending after the Closing Date in proportion to the number of days in each such period); and (ii) in the case of Taxes that are determined on a basis other than income, gross receipts or specific transactions, the amount of Taxes shall be allocable to the portion of the Straddle Period ending on and including the Closing Date and the portion of the Straddle Period beginning after the Closing Date based on a pro ration of days in such Straddle Period.

(b) (i) After the Closing, except as otherwise provided in this Section 7.10(b), the Company shall endeavor to timely prepare and file or cause to be prepared and filed all Tax Returns of the Acquired Subsidiaries and to timely pay or cause to be paid to the applicable Taxing Authority any amounts shown as due thereon.

(ii) Prior to the Company filing, or causing to be filed, any Tax Return of an Acquired Subsidiary for (A) a Pre-Closing Tax Period or (B) a Straddle Period, the Company shall provide to LBHI, at least thirty (30) days prior to the filing deadline for such Tax Return (taking into account any applicable extensions), a draft of such Tax Return, which shall be completed in a manner consistent with the past practices of such Acquired Subsidiary, except as otherwise required by a change in applicable Law or this Agreement. Within ten (10) days of delivery to LBHI of any such draft Tax Return, LBHI shall inform the Company of any objections LBHI has to such draft Tax Return, and if LBHI has no such objections, then the Company shall cause to be timely filed such Tax Return completed on the basis of the draft provided to LBHI. If within ten (10) days of delivery to LBHI of any such draft Tax Return, LBHI informs the Company of LBHI's objection(s) to such draft Tax Return, then LBHI and the Company shall negotiate in good faith to resolve such objection(s). If LBHI and the Company are able to resolve such objection(s) within ten (10) days of the filing deadline for such Tax Return (taking into account any applicable extensions), then the Company shall cause to be timely filed such Tax Return on the basis agreed upon by LBHI and the Company. If despite such good faith efforts, LBHI and the Company are unable to resolve such objection(s) within such period of time, then the matter shall be submitted to an independent accounting firm acceptable to LBHI and the Company for review and resolution by such accounting firm, which review and resolution shall (i) occur no later than five (5) days prior to the filing deadline of such Tax Return (taking into account any applicable extensions), and (ii) be limited to the basis of LBHI's objection(s); and, thereafter, the Company shall cause to be timely filed such Tax Return on the basis of the draft provided to LBHI, as modified to reflect such accounting firm's resolution of LBHI's objection(s) thereto. The fees and expenses of the independent accounting firm shall be paid one-half by LBHI and one-half by the Company. LBHI shall, not less than three (3) days prior to the due date (without regard to extensions) of any income Tax Return referred to in this Section 7.10(b)(ii), provide the Company with an amount of cash equal to the amount of Tax payable by such Acquired Subsidiary that is allocable to the Pre-Closing Tax Period, including the portion of any Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date, as determined pursuant to Section 7.10(a). In the case of a Tax Return filed pursuant to an extension, appropriate adjustments will be made between LBHI and the Company if, at the time the Tax Return is actually filed, the Taxes due and attributable to a Pre-Closing Tax Period, including the portion of any Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date, with respect to such Tax Return are more or less than the amount, if any, previously paid by LBHI.

(iii) In the case of any Affiliated Acquired Subsidiary, LBHI shall prepare and file the Tax Returns for the Affiliated Group that included such Affiliated Acquired Subsidiary for any Pre-Closing Tax Period or Straddle Period. Any such Tax Return shall be prepared in a manner consistent with the past practices with respect to such Affiliated Acquired Subsidiary, except as otherwise required by a change in applicable Law or this Agreement. At least thirty (30) days prior to filing, LBHI shall provide the Company with a copy of the portion of such Tax Returns that relate to the Affiliated Acquired Subsidiaries. Within ten (10) days of delivery to the Company of the portions of any such draft Tax Returns, the Company shall inform LBHI of any objections the Company has to the portion of such draft Tax Return, and if the Company has no such objections, then LBHI shall cause to be timely filed such Affiliated Group Tax Return completed on the basis of the draft provided to the Company. If within ten (10) days of delivery to the Company of any such portion of any such draft Tax Return, the Company informs the LBHI of the Company's objection(s) to such portion of such draft Tax Return, then LBHI and the Company shall negotiate in good faith to resolve such objection(s). If LBHI and the Company are able to resolve such objection(s) within ten (10) days of the filing deadline for such Tax Return (taking into account any applicable extensions), then LBHI shall cause to be timely filed such Tax Return on the basis agreed upon by LBHI and the Company. If despite such good faith efforts, LBHI and the Company are unable to resolve such objection(s) within such period of time, then the matter shall be submitted to an independent accounting firm acceptable to LBHI and the Company for review and resolution by such accounting firm, which review and resolution shall (i) occur no later than five (5) days prior to the filing deadline of such Tax Return (taking into account any applicable extensions) and (ii) be limited to the basis of the Company's objection(s); and, thereafter, LBHI shall cause to be timely filed such Tax Return on the basis of the draft provided to the Company, as modified to reflect such accounting firm's resolution of the Company's objection(s) thereto. The fees and expenses of the independent accounting firm shall be paid one-half by LBHI and one-half by the Company. The Company shall provide LBHI with any powers of attorney necessary in connection with the discharge by LBHI of its obligations pursuant to this Section 7.10(b)(iii).

(c) LBHI and the Company shall cooperate fully, as and to the extent reasonably requested by each other, in connection with the filing of Tax Returns and any audit, inquiry, litigation or other proceeding with respect to Taxes. Such cooperation shall include the retention and (upon the other party's request) the provision of records and information which are reasonably relevant to any such audit, inquiry, litigation or other proceeding and making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder.

(d) The Company shall have the sole right to control any audit or examination by any Governmental Body, initiate any claim for refund, and contest, resolve and defend against any assessment for additional Taxes, notice of Tax deficiency or other adjustment of Taxes of, or relating to, the income, assets or operations of any Acquired Subsidiary (collectively, "Acquired Subsidiary Tax Proceedings"); provided, however, if any Acquired Subsidiary Tax Proceeding could reasonably be expected to materially affect the amount of Taxes of LBHI for any Pre-Closing Tax Period (including the pre-closing portion of any Straddle Period), the Company will not enter into any settlement or compromise with respect to such Acquired Subsidiary Tax Proceedings without the prior written consent of LBHI (such consent not to be unreasonably conditioned, withheld or delayed).

(e) Prior to the Closing, LBHI shall cancel or cause to be cancelled any tax sharing, allocation, indemnity or similar agreement or arrangement to which any Acquired Subsidiary is a party, and if pursuant to any such agreement or arrangement, any Acquired Subsidiary is required to make any payment thereunder after the Closing in respect of any Taxes described in Section 9.2(b), then prior to such payment, LBHI shall pay to the Company an amount of cash equal to such payment.

(f) Except as required by Law, without the prior written consent of LBHI (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), the Company may not amend, refile, revoke or otherwise modify or cause or permit to be amended, refiled, revoked or otherwise modified any Tax Return or Tax election of any Acquired Subsidiary that reasonably can be expected to affect the Tax liability of LBHI for any Pre-Closing Tax Period (including the pre-Closing portion of any Straddle Period).

(g) All Transfer Taxes arising out of or in connection with the transactions affected pursuant to this Agreement, as well all out-of-pocket costs associated with the preparation and filing of the Tax Returns under this Section 7.10(g), shall be borne one-half by LBHI and one-half by the Company. The Company shall timely file or cause to be filed all necessary documentation and Tax Returns with respect to such Transfer Taxes and LBHI will cooperate with the Company in connection therewith.

(h) Unless otherwise required by applicable Law, the parties hereto agree that the Contribution shall be a transaction governed by Section 721 of the Code, and no party shall take any action or make any statement inconsistent with such treatment.

(i) As requested by the Company, LBHI and the Company shall cooperate to restructure or reorganize any Acquired Subsidiary prior to Closing in order to affect a tax efficient ownership structure for the Company, including without limitation the conversion of any U.S. Acquired Subsidiary that is a corporation for U.S. tax purposes into a limited liability company (treated as a partnership or disregarded entity for U.S. tax purposes) under applicable Law or electing on behalf any non-U.S. Acquired Subsidiary that is treated as a corporation for U.S. tax purposes to be treated as a partnership or disregarded entity for U.S. tax purposes (and with respect to any non-U.S. Acquired Subsidiary that is a “per se” corporation within the meaning of the Treasury Regulations issued under Code Section 7701 to convert under applicable Law such Acquired Subsidiary to an “eligible entity” within the meaning of such Treasury Regulations prior to such election, if necessary); provided, however, LBHI shall not be required to implement any such restructuring or reorganization or make any such election if doing so would be reasonably likely to result in an adverse consequence to LBHI or any of its Affiliates.

(j) If the Company or any Acquired Subsidiary receives any refund, rebate, abatement, credit or other recovery of any income Taxes, together with any interest due thereon or penalty rebate arising therefrom, for any Pre-Closing Tax Period (or portion thereof) (a “Pre-Closing Tax Recovery”), then the Company shall pay or cause to be paid to LBHI within three (3) days of receipt thereof an amount of cash equal to such Pre-Closing Tax Recovery. LBHI shall have the right, at its expense, to request that the Company pursue any Pre-Closing Tax Recovery; provided, however, the Company shall not be required to pursue any Pre-Closing Tax Recovery if the Company shall determine in its reasonable discretion that pursuing such Pre-Closing Tax Recovery will likely have an adverse effect on the Company or any Acquired Subsidiary. No payment to LBHI pursuant to this Section 7.10(i) shall be considered a distribution in redemption of, or otherwise upon or in respect of, any LBHI Preferred Unit of Class A Common Unit.

7.11 Indemnification of Officers and Employees of the Company.

(a) LBHI agrees to indemnify and hold harmless (and to advance expenses to) each officer of the Company against any and all Losses incurred prior to the Closing or relating to any event, fact or circumstance occurring prior to the Closing (including without limitation the formation of the Company), in each case for actions taken or omitted to be taken in such person’s capacity as an officer of the Company to the same extent that such person would be indemnified and held harmless (and would be advanced expenses) against Losses were such person deemed to be an officer of LBHI as described on Schedule 7.11(a) and were such person’s actions deemed to have been taken or omitted to have been taken as an officer of LBHI.

(b) LBHI agrees to indemnify and hold harmless (and to advance expenses to) each Employee Member against any and all Losses incurred as a result of any alleged breach of any covenant or agreement of such person referred to on Schedule 7.11(b) to the same extent that such person would be indemnified and held harmless (and would be advanced expenses) against Losses were such person deemed to be an officer of LBHI as described on Schedule 7.11(a) and were such person's actions deemed to have been taken or omitted to have been taken as an officer of LBHI, but only to the extent such Loss arises solely as a result of such person's execution of the Employee Letter Agreement.

7.12 Client Brokerage Consents. Promptly and in any event within 30 Business Days following the Execution Date, to the extent required by applicable Law or pursuant to a brokerage agreement, LBHI shall and shall cause each applicable Acquired Subsidiary, as applicable, to inform each of its applicable brokerage clients in writing of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by sending such client a notice thereof, and, other than with respect to the Public Funds (which are addressed in Section 7.14 of this Agreement), shall use its reasonable best efforts to seek such client's consent to the continuation of its brokerage agreement with the applicable Subsidiary of the Company following consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, which notice shall comply with applicable Law. To the extent consistent with applicable Law or SEC or FINRA pronouncements or unless affirmative consent is required by the applicable agreement, such consent may take the form of a so-called implied or negative consent. The Company will provide to LBHI all information regarding the Company and its Affiliates reasonably required in connection therewith. LBHI shall deliver drafts of all such consents and related materials to the Company a reasonable time prior to the mailing or other distribution of such documents to any Client in order to afford the Company an opportunity to fully review and comment on such documents, and the Company shall have the right to so review and comment on such documents. The Company will provide to LBHI all information regarding the Company and its Affiliates reasonably required to be included in the consents and related materials and the Company covenants that any information related to it that is provided by it or its Affiliates or its respective operations or plans will not contain, at the time such materials are furnished to LBHI, any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein, where necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. LBHI covenants that all other information contained in the consents and related materials will not contain, at the time such materials are furnished to any client, any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein, where necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

7.13 Client Investment Advisory Consents. Promptly and in any event within 30 Business Days following the Execution Date, to the extent required by applicable Law or pursuant to an investment advisory agreement, LBHI shall, or shall cause the Business Entities or their Subsidiaries, as applicable, to, inform each Client in writing of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by sending such Client a notice thereof, and, other than with respect to the Public Funds (which are addressed in Section 7.14 of this Agreement), shall use its reasonable best efforts to seek such Client's consent to the continuation of its investment advisory agreement with a member of the Company Group, as applicable, following consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, which notice shall comply with applicable Law. To the extent consistent with applicable Law or SEC pronouncements or unless affirmative consent is required by the applicable agreement, such consent may take the form of a so-called implied or negative consent; provided that, in seeking any such Client consent through such implied or negative consent, LBHI or its applicable Subsidiary shall provide, no less than 45 days prior to the Closing, written notice to the Client that the applicable Subsidiary will continue to provide investment advice to the Client, pursuant to the Client's existing investment advisory agreement, after the Closing. LBHI shall deliver drafts of all such consents and related materials to the Company a reasonable time prior to the mailing or other distribution of such documents to any Client in order to afford the Company an opportunity to fully review and comment on such documents, and the Company shall have the right to so review and comment on such documents. The Company will provide to LBHI all information regarding it and its Affiliates reasonably required to be included in the consents and related materials and the Company covenants that any information related to the Company that is provided by it or its Affiliates or their respective operations or plans will not contain, at the time such materials are furnished to LBHI, any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein, where necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. LBHI covenants that all other information contained in the consents and related materials will not contain, at the time such materials are furnished to any client, any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein, where necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

7.14 Public Fund Investment Advisory Consents.

(a) As soon as practicable after the Execution Date, to the extent required by applicable Law or pursuant to an investment advisory agreement, LBHI shall, or shall cause each applicable Acquired Subsidiary to, use its reasonable best efforts to, in accordance with applicable Law, (i) obtain, with respect to each Public Fund, the approval by the relevant Public Fund's board of directors or board of trustees acting in accordance with Section 15(c) of the Investment Company Act of a new investment advisory agreement with the applicable Acquired Subsidiary on terms that are no less favorable to the applicable Acquired Subsidiary than the terms of the existing investment advisory agreement with such Public Fund (each such new investment advisory agreement, a "New Public Fund Investment Advisory Agreement"); and (ii) obtain, with respect to each Public Fund, the approval by the relevant Public Fund's board of directors or board of trustees of the continuation after the Closing, or the replacement, of any other existing agreement with the applicable Acquired Subsidiary, on terms that are no less favorable to the applicable Acquired Subsidiary than the terms of such existing agreement with such Public Fund, but only to the extent any such other contract will terminate as a result of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the "Other Public Fund Agreements").

(b) Promptly after obtaining the approvals set forth in Section 7.14(a) above, to the extent required by applicable Law, LBHI shall, or shall cause each applicable Acquired Subsidiary to, use its reasonable best efforts to cause to be prepared and filed with the SEC proxy materials for meetings of the shareholders of each of the Public Funds and to cause proxy solicitations to be undertaken in order that such meetings be held and concluded as early as practicable prior to the Closing. At such shareholder meetings, the approval of the applicable shareholders will be sought, to the extent required by Law to be approved by shareholder vote, for (i) the New Public Fund Investment Advisory Agreements; (ii) the Other Public Fund Agreements; and (iii) such other matters related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. LBHI shall deliver drafts of such proxy materials to the Company a reasonable time prior to filing any such documents with the SEC and prior to mailing such documents to shareholders of the Public Funds in order to afford the Company an opportunity to fully review and comment on such documents, and the Company shall have the right to so review and comment on such documents.

(c) LBHI covenants that any such proxy materials for each of the Public Funds will comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable rules of the SEC.

(d) Each party covenants that any information describing such party or its Affiliates or their respective operations or plans or provided by such party or its Affiliates that is contained in any proxy materials will not contain, at the time such materials are furnished or at the time of the shareholder meeting contemplated thereby, any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein, where necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

(e) In the event that, with respect to a Public Fund, LBHI or any of its Subsidiaries expects that it will be unable to obtain any required approvals of the shareholders of the Public Fund in accordance with Section 7.14(b) hereof prior to the Closing, (i) LBHI shall use its reasonable best efforts to seek such approvals, together with the applicable members of the Company Group, as soon as possible following the Closing (but in no event later than 150 days following the Closing), and shall request the board of directors or board of trustees of such Public Fund to approve, before the Closing and in conformity with Rule 15a-4 under the Investment Company Act, an interim investment advisory agreement to be effective immediately following the Closing, for such Public Fund, containing the same terms and conditions as the existing investment advisory agreement (except as required under Rule 15a-4 under the Investment Company Act) with such Public Fund (each, a "New Public Fund Interim Investment Advisory Agreement").

(f) LBHI shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Public Funds to timely amend the Public Funds' Registration Statements on Form N-1A or Form N-2, as applicable, pursuant to Rule 485(a) under the Securities Act to reflect the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the approval of the New Public Fund Investment Advisory Agreements.

(g) For purposes of this Agreement, any New Public Fund Investment Advisory Agreement, New Public Fund Interim Investment Advisory Agreement and Other Public Fund Agreement may, upon the mutual agreement of LBHI and the Company prior to seeking the relevant approvals of such agreement, be with a different Subsidiary on terms at least as favorable to such Subsidiary as would have been the case if such agreement had been with the applicable member of the Company Group.

7.15 Section 15 of the Investment Company Act. The parties each agree to use all commercially reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with the requirements of Section 15(f) of the Investment Company Act in respect of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereunder. In that regard, the parties shall cause the Company from and after the Closing to conduct its business and shall, subject to applicable fiduciary duties in relation to any Public Fund, use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause each of its Subsidiaries to conduct their business, so as (i) to enable (i) for a period of three years after the Closing Date, at least 75% of the members of each board of directors/trustees of each Public Fund not to be (A) “interested persons” (as that term is defined in the Investment Company Act) of the investment adviser of the relevant Fund after the Closing, or (B) “interested persons” (as that term is defined in the Investment Company Act) of the investment adviser of the relevant Fund immediately prior to the Closing and (ii) there not to be imposed an “unfair burden” (as that term is defined in the Investment Company Act) on any Public Fund as a result of the transactions contemplated hereby, or any express or implied terms, conditions or understandings applicable thereto; provided, however, that if the Company shall have obtained an order from the SEC exempting it from the provisions of Section 15(f), while still maintaining the “safe harbor” provided by Section 15(f), then this covenant shall be deemed to be modified to the extent necessary to permit the Company to act in any manner consistent with such SEC exemptive order.

7.16 Administration. Promptly after the Execution Date, the parties will use their commercially reasonable efforts to structure and document an arrangement whereby Pricewaterhouse Coopers LLP (in its capacity as the administrator of Lehman Brothers International (Europe), Lehman Brothers Holdings plc, Lehman Brothers UK RE Holdings Limited and Lehman Brothers Limited, and in the case of any other assets intended to be part of the Purchased Assets subject to or under administration, receivership, bankruptcy or other similar insolvency proceeding in any non-U.S. jurisdiction, any Person appointed to manage such asset, the “Administrator”) would be asked to agree to (a) transfer any of the Purchased Assets that are subject to the dominion and control of the Administrator (the “Administered Assets”) pursuant to the Contribution and (b) a transitional operating plan to maintain the ordinary course operations of the relevant operations of the Business (at the expense of LBHI if requested by the Administrator) under the dominion and control of such Administrator in exchange for receipt from LBHI (or its applicable Subsidiary) of an amount mutually agreed by LBHI and the Administrator. To facilitate the transfer of the Administered Assets, LBHI

(i) shall organize one or more wholly-owned entities as Acquired Subsidiaries into which the Administered Assets would be transferred at Closing, and (ii) shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain, on or prior to Closing, any consents, licenses or other authorizations necessary to own and operate the Administered Assets from each relevant Governmental Body, including the Financial Services Authority and the Irish Financial Regulator, as applicable.

7.17 Qualification of the Public Funds. LBHI will prior to the Closing use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of the Public Funds to continue to qualify as a “regulated investment company” within the meaning of Section 851 of the Code, and will not take any action prior to the Closing that would reasonably be expected to prevent any of the Public Funds from qualifying as such a “regulated investment company.” In addition, LBHI will use its best efforts to cause the Public Funds to take no action prior to the Closing that would be inconsistent with any Public Fund’s prospectus and statements of additional information or other offering, advertising or marketing materials.

7.18 [Reserved].

7.19 Real Property Leases.

(a) On or prior to the Closing Date, the Subleased Real Property Leases shall be assumed by LBHI and each Subleased Real Property Lease shall be assigned to BarCap.

(b) With respect to each Subleased Real Property Lease, LBHI shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause BarCap to (i) on or prior to the Closing Date, negotiate in good faith, in accordance with, and limited by LBHI’s rights under the BarCap APA, with LBHI, on behalf of the Company Group, a sublease agreement (a “Sublease”) on mutually agreeable terms, pursuant to which a portion of the demised premises under such underlying Subleased Real Property Lease (such portion of the premises to be agreed upon by the parties) shall be subleased after the Closing to a member of the Company Group, and (ii) execute and deliver on the Closing Date such mutually acceptable Sublease. The Sublease shall be subject to the terms of the applicable underlying Subleased Real Property Lease.

(c) LBHI’s obligation to enter into, or to cause BarCap to enter into, Subleases in accordance with this Section 7.19 is subject to the receipt by LBHI or BarCap, as applicable, of all applicable Landlord Consents. BarCap or LBHI, as applicable and the Company will cooperate and use commercially reasonable efforts in obtaining such Landlord Consents with respect to the Subleases; provided, however, that LBHI shall not be obligated to incur any expenses in connection with obtaining such Landlord Consents. BarCap or LBHI, as applicable and the applicable member of the Company Group shall otherwise comply in all respects with the terms and provisions of the underlying Subleased Real Property Lease in connection with the execution and delivery of the applicable Sublease.

(d) (i) Notwithstanding the above, in the event that, following the Closing, BarCap, through an assignment from LBHI, obtains a leasehold interest that continues to be used or occupied by an employee of a member of the Company Group, and such leasehold interest is not subleased by BarCap to such member of the Company Group or its designees, then, to the extent permitted under the terms and conditions of the BarCap APA, LBHI shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause BarCap to permit the Company or another member of the Company Group to continue to occupy or use such property to the same extent and in the same manner as prior to the Closing for a period commencing on the Closing Date and expiring on June 10, 2009.

(ii) In addition, with regard to leasehold interests held by LBHI or its Subsidiaries which are used in the operation of the Business (including, but not limited to, the lease of 399 Park Avenue, New York, New York) and not subleased to a member of the Company Group pursuant to this Section 7.19, LBHI, to the extent reasonably practicable, shall provide reasonable prior notice to the Company before rejecting or otherwise acting to terminate the underlying lease prior to March 19, 2008, and shall not reject or take other action resulting in the rejection or termination of such lease.

7.20 [Reserved].

7.21 Amended and Restated Operating Agreement. Prior to the Closing, LBHI and the Company shall negotiate in good faith the definitive terms of an amended and restated operating agreement for the Company having the terms and conditions set forth in the term sheet attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Amended and Restated Operating Agreement"), which shall be in effect as of the Closing.

7.22 Deferred Transfers.

(a) If and to the extent that the allocation to and vesting in any member of the Company Group of any Purchased Assets pursuant to the Contribution or otherwise would be a violation of applicable Law or require any consent or the approval of any Governmental Body or any other Person or the fulfillment of any condition that cannot be fulfilled by any party prior to the Closing then, unless the parties shall otherwise agree, the allocation to and vesting in such Acquired Subsidiary of such Purchased Asset shall be, without any further action by any party hereto, automatically deferred and any allocation or vesting of such Purchased Asset pursuant to the Contribution or otherwise shall be null and void until such time as all violations of applicable Law are eliminated, such consents or approvals of Governmental Bodies or other Persons are obtained, and such conditions are fulfilled, which in all cases shall be no later than twelve (12) months from the Closing Date unless otherwise agreed to by the parties hereto. Any such Purchased Asset shall be deemed a "Deferred Transfer Purchased Asset."

(b) If and to the extent that the allocation to an Acquired Subsidiary of, and such Acquired Subsidiary's becoming responsible for, any Assumed Liabilities pursuant to the Contribution or otherwise would be a violation of applicable Law or require any consent or approval of any Governmental Body or other Person or the fulfillment of any condition that cannot be fulfilled by any party prior to the Closing, then, unless the parties hereto shall otherwise agree, the allocation to such Acquired Subsidiary and such Acquired Subsidiary becoming responsible for, such Assumed Liability shall, without any further action by any party, be automatically deferred and any allocation or responsibility for such Assumed Liability pursuant to the Contribution or otherwise shall be null and void until such time as all violations of applicable Law are eliminated, such consents or approvals of Governmental Bodies or other Persons are obtained, and such conditions are fulfilled. Any such Assumed Liability shall be deemed a “Deferred Transfer Assumed Liability.”

(c) With respect to any Deferred Transfer Purchased Asset or any Deferred Transfer Assumed Liability, insofar as it is reasonably possible, (i) LBHI shall, and shall cause any applicable Subsidiary of LBHI to, following the Closing, hold such Deferred Transfer Purchased Asset for the use and benefit of the Company (at the expense of the Company) and (ii) the Company shall, or shall cause its applicable Subsidiary to, pay or reimburse LBHI for all amounts paid or incurred in connection with the retention of such Deferred Transfer Assumed Liability, to the extent that any such amount would otherwise be an Assumed Liability. In addition, LBHI shall, and shall cause any applicable Subsidiary of LBHI to, insofar as reasonably possible and to the extent permitted by applicable Law, hold and treat such Deferred Transfer Purchased Asset in the ordinary course of business in accordance with past practice and take such other actions as may be reasonably requested by the Company in order to place the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, insofar as permissible under applicable Law and reasonably possible, in the same position as if such Deferred Transfer Purchased Asset had been transferred to and vested in the Company or an applicable Subsidiary of the Company at the Closing and so that, to the extent possible, all the benefits and burdens relating to such Deferred Transfer Purchased Asset, including possession, use, risk of loss, potential for gain, and dominion, control and command over such Deferred Transfer Purchased Asset, are to inure from and after the Closing to the Company or its applicable Subsidiary entitled to the receipt of such Deferred Transfer Purchased Asset; provided, that in no event shall any such liabilities or obligations include any Excluded Liabilities.

(d) If and when the consents, approvals of Governmental Bodies or other Persons and/or conditions, the absence or non-satisfaction of which caused the deferral or transfer of any Deferred Transfer Purchased Asset or Deferred Transfer Assumed Liability pursuant to Section 7.22(a) and Section 7.22(b), are obtained or satisfied, the transfer, allocation or novation of the applicable Deferred Transfer Purchased Asset or Deferred Transfer Assumed Liability shall be effected in accordance with and subject to the terms of this Agreement.

(e) LBHI shall not be obligated, in connection with the foregoing, to expend any money unless the necessary funds are advanced, assumed or agreed in advance to be reimbursed by the Company, other than reasonable attorney’s fees and recording or similar fees, all of which shall be promptly reimbursed by the Company.

7.23 [Reserved].

7.24 [Reserved].

7.25 [Reserved].

7.26 Withdrawal of LBHI Capital. With respect to the seed capital amounts listed on Schedule 7.26, LBHI shall, and shall causes its Affiliates to, maintain such seed capital according to the timeline and other requirements specified on Schedule 7.26.

7.27 Lehman Commitments to Funds.

(a) From the Execution Date until the Closing Date, LBHI shall, or shall cause its Affiliates to, honor all existing capital commitments made by LBHI and each of its Affiliates both (i) in their capacity as general partner or similar controlling member, shareholder, trustee or other entity, including any interest as a special limited partner, and (ii) as a limited partner or in respect of any side by side commitment, in each case, in any Fund that is included in the Purchased Assets.

(b) From the Execution Date until the Closing Date, LBHI shall not and shall cause its Affiliates not to, sell, transfer, pledge or otherwise directly or indirectly dispose of any side by side interest or interest as a limited partner, shareholder or member of any Fund unless LBHI shall have, prior to any such transfer, received written confirmation from the transferee that the transferee will (i) vote in favor of any proposed amendments to any Fund documents and grant the consents (in whatever capacity) or approvals (in whatever capacity), in each case, applicable to such Fund in support of the transactions contemplated hereby (in whatever capacity); (ii) not solicit and not vote in favor of any liquidation or termination of any such Fund, or the removal of the general partner, investment advisor or comparable entity for such Fund or similar event, other than any such action taken in support of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (iii) refrain from transferring such interest until the earlier of the Closing or the termination of this Agreement; provided, however, that LBHI or its Affiliates may permit such transferee to transfer such interest if the subsequent transferee provides written confirmation to the Company and LBHI that such transferee will comply with the terms set forth in this Section 7.27(b).

7.28 Director Resignations. Prior to the Closing, at the Company's request, LBHI shall cause all directors, trustees, officers and managers of any Acquired Subsidiary and of any Fund (other than independent directors or trustees of a Public Fund) advised by any Acquired Subsidiary to resign from their offices, effective no later than the Closing.

7.29 Taxing Authority Notification. If any Person that files Tax Returns on a consolidated, combined or unitary basis with LBHI or any of its Affiliates files a Bankruptcy Case, as permitted by this Agreement, LBHI shall cause such Person to notify, in accordance with applicable law, the IRS and any other applicable Taxing Authority in the jurisdiction, in which such case was filed, of the commencement of such case.

7.30 Employee Securities Company. In connection with any “employee securities company” (as such term is defined in the Investment Company Act), the management contract of which will be held by the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company following the Contribution, LBHI agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to (and the Company agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to assist LBHI’s efforts to) (i) obtain an amendment to that certain Order pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act that sets forth the conditions of operation of such “employee securities company” (or other regulatory approval), to permit an Affiliate of the Company to manage and control such “employee securities company” or (ii) arrange alternative means by which such “employee securities company” may continue to operate in accordance with the existing conditions set forth in the Order, in either case, as soon as practicable, but, in any event, no later than five Business Days prior to the Closing.

7.31 Artwork. The Company shall have the right to possess, for a period of one-year after the Closing, all of the artwork located, as of the Execution Date, in the premises used by the Business, including 605 Third Avenue, New York, New York but excluding 399 Park Avenue, New York, New York. At any time during such period, the Company shall have the option to purchase any or all of such artwork and any or all other artwork identified prior to the Execution Date as being part of the Neuberger Berman art collection, wherever located, for a price equal to its then appraised value (as determined by an independent, mutually acceptable, recognized appraiser). To the extent the Company does exercise such option on any or all of the artwork by the first anniversary of the Closing that is not located on premises occupied by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, the Company shall be responsible for crating and moving such artwork after its purchase. To the extent the Company does not exercise such option on any or all of such artwork by the first anniversary of the Closing that is located on premises occupied by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, LBHI shall be responsible for crating and moving such artwork. During such period that the Company has the right to possess the artwork following the Closing, the Company shall bear the risk of loss for such artwork located in premises used by the Business other than 399 Park Avenue, New York, New York. In the event that any artwork located in premises used by the Business other than 399 Park Avenue, New York, New York is damaged or lost during such period, the Company shall pay to LBHI an amount equal to the damage or loss, consistent with the insured appraised value (as determined by such appraisal) for such artwork, assuming such artwork had not been lost or damaged.

7.32 Transition Services Obligations.

(a) LBHI and the Company acknowledge that prior to the Closing, the Business has been operated by LBHI as an integrated division of a larger organization, and that the successful operation of the business in the ordinary course of its operations and the operation by LBHI and its Affiliates of the businesses retained by it and its Affiliates has depended, and will continue to depend, on the uninterrupted receipt by the Business and such retained businesses of rights, information, goods, and services (collectively “Services”) from: (i) those portions of LBHI’s and its Affiliates’ businesses that are not being acquired by the Company pursuant to the Contribution; and (ii) those portions of LBHI’s and its Affiliates’ businesses that are being acquired by the Company pursuant to the Contribution, respectively. Except as set forth below regarding Services that may be provided by others, LBHI covenants that it shall provide the Company, and to the Company’s Affiliates, successors, assigns, sublicensees, and transferees, for the Transition Period, (as defined below) all Services that have been previously provided by LBHI or any Affiliate of LBHI, to the Business, and that are necessary to allow the Company to continue to operate the Business in the ordinary course, at the level and in such manner as LBHI or its Affiliates have provided such Service during the period from July 1, 2007 through June 30, 2008. Similarly, the Company covenants that it shall provide LBHI and its Subsidiaries, and to LBHI and its Subsidiaries’ successors, assigns, sublicensees, and transferees, for the Transition Period, (as defined below) all Services that have been previously provided by the portions of LBHI’s and its Affiliates’ businesses that are being acquired by the Company pursuant to the Contribution, and that are necessary to allow LBHI and its Subsidiaries to continue to their ordinary course of business as conducted prior to Closing and/or unwind their operations, at the level and in such manner as the portions of LBHI’s business that are being acquired by the Company pursuant to the Contribution have provided such Service during the period from January 1, 2008 through June 30, 2008. The “Transition Period” means the period commencing on the Closing Date and continuing for two (2) years. LBHI and the Company shall each be reasonably compensated for such Services pursuant to the terms of the mutually agreed transition services more fully described in Section 7.32(c) below.

(b) Notwithstanding LBHI’s and the Company’s obligations to provide Services pursuant to Section 7.32(a) above, LBHI and the Company shall not be obligated to provide Services directly and may contract for the provision of necessary Services by others and “Services” shall not include those Services to be provided by or to BarCap under the BarCap TSA, by Nomura Holdings Inc. under the Nomura India TSA or the Nomura Asia TSA or by the European Persons under the Transition Services Agreement dated November 12, 2008 among the European Persons, LBHI and certain Affiliates of LBHI. In addition, LBHI shall not be obligated to provide any services that were previously provided by an entity that is not under the direct or indirect control of LBHI such as by reason of the appointment of an administrator, liquidator or the like. Without limitation, in the event LBHI or the Company disposes of or transfers facilities, systems, or other assets upon which material Services are based or are necessary for the rendering of Services, LBHI or the Company, as applicable, shall require all assignees and transferees to such assets to become contractually bound to LBHI or the Company, and LBHI’s or the Company’s successors and assigns, as applicable, to provide Services utilizing such assets up to the level and in the manner that LBHI or the Company would have been obligated to provide hereunder had such assets not been assigned or transferred.

(c) Commencing as of the Execution Date, the authorized representatives of the parties shall meet and confer on a regular basis to draft and reach mutual agreement upon a detailed transition services agreement consistent with the obligations of LBHI and the Company set forth above which sets forth, through mutually agreed schedules and exhibits the specific services to be provided, the service level commitments, service pricing, and other commercially reasonable provisions and details. If any person that is not now an Affiliate of LBHI (other than BarCap, PricewaterhouseCoopers or, with respect to Asia or India, Nomura Holdings Inc.) controls assets that were controlled by LBHI or its Affiliates prior to September 15, 2008 and such Person is providing transitional services to the Business as of the date hereof using such assets, LBHI shall use reasonable efforts to facilitate an arrangement pursuant to which such entity enters into an agreement with the Company for the continuation of such services following the Closing.

7.33 Intercompany Accounts. Except as otherwise mutually agreed by the parties, at or prior to the Closing, LBHI shall, and shall cause its Acquired Subsidiaries to, settle all intercompany transactions between any Acquired Subsidiary (on the one hand) and LBHI or any other Subsidiary of LBHI (other than any other Acquired Subsidiary (on the other hand)), such that, from and after the Closing, there will be no intercompany Liabilities between LBHI and its Subsidiaries (on the one hand) and any member of the Company Group (on the other hand).

7.34 Excluded Liabilities. From and after the Closing, LBHI shall be responsible for, and shall pay, discharge and satisfy (or shall cause to be paid, discharged and satisfied), when due, all Excluded Liabilities.

7.35 Assumed Liabilities. From and after the Closing, the Company shall be responsible for, and shall pay, discharge and satisfy (or shall cause to be paid, discharged and satisfied), when due, all Assumed Liabilities.

ARTICLE VIII

CONDITIONS TO CLOSING

8.1 Conditions Precedent to Obligation of the Company. The obligation of the Company to consummate the Closing is subject to the fulfillment, on or prior to the Closing Date, of each of the following conditions (any or all of which may be waived by the Company in whole or in part to the extent permitted by applicable Law):

(a) the representations and warranties of LBHI set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects when made and, at and as of the Closing as though made at and as of such time (other than any such representations and warranties that relate to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date), and the Company shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of LBHI, dated the Closing Date, to the foregoing effect;

(b) LBHI shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all material obligations and agreements required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it on or prior to the Closing Date (it being acknowledged that the failure to obtain any consents or approvals sought under this Agreement shall not be considered to be a failure to perform or comply with any of LBHI's obligations or agreements so long as LBHI has complied in all material respects with Section 7.4, Section 7.5, Section 7.6, Section 7.10, Section 7.12, Section 7.13, Section 7.14 and Section 7.19), and the Company shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of LBHI, dated the Closing Date, to the foregoing effect;

(c) there shall not be in effect any Order by a Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby;

(d) all approvals required from, or the expiration of any waiting period with respect to, any Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction, FINRA and other Self-Regulatory Organizations with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will have been obtained or occurred;

(e) LBHI shall have delivered, or caused to be delivered, to the Company, duly executed copies of the Ancillary Agreements and the documents referenced in Section 3.2(b) to which LBHI or any Affiliate thereof is a party;

(f) the Contribution shall have been consummated subject to the terms of this Agreement; and

(g) the Bankruptcy Court shall have entered a Sale Order in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company, and such Sale Order shall not have been stayed, reversed, amended, or vacated.

8.2 Conditions Precedent to Obligation of LBHI. The obligation of LBHI to consummate the Closing is subject to the fulfillment, on or prior to the Closing Date, of each of the following conditions (any or all of which may be waived by LBHI in whole or in part to the extent permitted by applicable Law):

(a) the representations and warranties of the Company set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects when made and at and as of the Closing as though made at and as of such time (other than such representations and warranties that relate to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date), and LBHI shall have received a certificate signed by the Company, dated the Closing Date, to the foregoing effect;

(b) the Company shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all material obligations and agreements required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by the Company on or prior to the Closing Date, and LBHI shall have received a certificate signed by the Company, dated the Closing Date, to the foregoing effect;

(c) all approvals required from, or the expiration of any waiting period with respect to, any Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction, FINRA and other Self-Regulatory Organizations with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will have been obtained or occurred;

(d) there shall not be in effect any Order by a Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby;

(e) the Company shall have delivered, or caused to be delivered, to LBHI, duly executed Ancillary Agreements and the documents referenced in Section 3.2(c) to which the Company or any Affiliate thereof is a party;

(f) each Employee Member shall have (i) executed and delivered an Employment Agreement, and (ii) become a member of the Company by executing and delivering a copy of the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement; and

(g) the Bankruptcy Court shall have entered a Sale Order in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to LBHI, and such Sale Order shall not have been stayed, reversed, amended, or vacated.

8.3 Frustration of Closing Conditions. Neither the Company nor LBHI may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Sections 8.1 or 8.2, as the case may be, if such failure was primarily due to the failure of such party (or, in the case of LBHI, a failure by any Business Entity) to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

INDEMNIFICATION

9.1 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All representations and warranties contained in this Agreement shall terminate on the Closing Date and shall not be subject to any claim after the Closing Date.

9.2 Indemnification by LBHI. Subject to the provisions of this Article IX, LBHI hereby agrees, from and after the Closing, to indemnify and hold each member of the Company Group, and their permitted successors and assigns, harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, demands, judgments, damages, fines, suits, actions, penalties, obligations, charges, deficiencies, interest, settlement payments, awards, lost profits, diminution in value, costs and expenses of every kind whatsoever, including without limitation, costs and expenses of investigation, court costs, expert witness fees, consulting fees, accountants' and attorney's fees and expenses

(individually, a “Loss” and, collectively, “Losses”) arising or resulting from, or relating to:

(a) the Liabilities described on Schedule 9.2(a);

(b) all Liabilities for (i) any and all income Taxes of LBHI, any of its Affiliates or any of the Acquired Subsidiaries (A) for any Pre-Closing Tax Period or (B) that are allocable to the pre-Closing portion of any Straddle Period (as determined pursuant to Section 7.10(a)) and (ii) any and all Taxes, other than income Taxes, other than such Taxes attributable to the business or operations of any Acquired Subsidiary or otherwise attributable to the Business;

(c) all Liabilities arising out of or related to defined benefit pension plans, including the Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. Retirement Plan and the Lehman Brothers Pension Scheme (UK), or individual account-based savings plans including the Lehman Brothers Savings Plan or the Lehman Brothers UK Savings Plan, including any liability related to the common stock of LBHI held under any such plan; and

(d) all Liabilities arising under Section 412 or 430 of the Code, Section 302 or Title IV of ERISA, any other section of the Code or ERISA or otherwise with respect to or by reason of, any Benefit Plan (i) of LBHI or any related entity, including but not limited to any Acquired Subsidiary, through the Closing Date, whether or not as a result of any member of the Company Group being treated, before or after the Closing Date, as a member of a group under common control (or similar concept) under Section 4001(a)(3) of ERISA, Section 414 of the Code or any other law or regulation, and (ii) of LBHI or any related entity, including but not limited to an Acquired Subsidiary, as a result of any member of the Company Group being treated after the Closing Date as a member of a group under common control (or similar concept) under Section 4001(a)(3) of ERISA, Section 414 of the Code or any other law or regulation.

9.3 [Reserved].

9.4 Certain Limitations on Indemnification. The amount of any Losses for which indemnification is provided under this Article IX shall be net of any amounts actually recovered by the indemnified party under insurance policies or otherwise with respect to such Losses (net of any expenses incurred in connection with such recovery and net of the amount of any increased insurance premiums or other costs for such indemnified party). Each party shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to recover under insurance policies for any Losses concurrently with seeking indemnification under this Agreement.

9.5 Survival of Indemnification.

(a) All Liabilities for indemnification pursuant to Section 9.2(a) shall survive until the date that is the nine-month anniversary of the Closing Date; provided, however, that if written notice of a claim for indemnification under Section 9.2(a) has been given prior to the expiration of the applicable time period set forth above for such Liability, then LBHI's indemnification obligations in respect of such claim under Section 9.2(a) shall survive as to such claim until such claim has been finally resolved. Any claim for indemnification not made by the Company pursuant to Section 9.2(a) on or prior to such date will be irrevocably and unconditionally released and waived.

(b) All Liabilities for indemnification pursuant to Section 9.2(b), Section 9.2(c) and Section 9.2(d) shall survive until the date that is 30 days following the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations; provided, however, that if written notice of a claim for indemnification under Section 9.2(b), Section 9.2(c) or Section 9.2(d) has been given prior to the expiration of the applicable time period set forth above for such Liability, then the Company's indemnification obligations in respect of such claim under Section 9.2(b), Section 9.2(c) or Section 9.2(d) shall survive as to such claim until such claim has been finally resolved. Any claim for indemnification not made by the Company pursuant to Section 9.2(b), Section 9.2(c) or Section 9.2(d) on or prior to such date will be irrevocably and unconditionally released and waived.

(c) No Liability for indemnification under Section 9.2 shall be subject to objection or disallowance under section 502(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

9.6 Indemnification Procedures.

(a) A claim for indemnification for any matter not involving a third-party claim may be asserted by notice to the party from whom indemnification is sought.

(b) In the event that any Legal Proceedings shall be instituted or that any claim or demand shall be asserted by any third party in respect of which payment may be sought under Section 9.2 hereof (regardless of the limitations set forth in Section 9.4) (an "Indemnification Claim"), the indemnified party shall promptly cause written notice of the assertion of any Indemnification Claim of which it has knowledge which is covered by this indemnity to be forwarded to the indemnifying party. The failure of the indemnified party to give reasonably prompt notice of any Indemnification Claim shall not release, waive or otherwise affect the indemnifying party's obligations with respect thereto except to the extent that the indemnifying party is actually and materially prejudiced as a result of such failure. The indemnifying party shall have the right, at its sole option and expense, to be represented by counsel of its choice, which must be reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party, and to defend against, negotiate, settle or otherwise deal with any Indemnification Claim which relates to any Losses indemnified against by it hereunder. If the indemnifying party elects to defend against, negotiate, settle or otherwise deal with any Indemnification Claim which relates to any Losses indemnified against by it hereunder, it shall within 30 days (or sooner, if the nature of the Indemnification Claim so requires) notify the indemnified party in writing of its intent to do so. If the indemnifying party elects not to defend against, negotiate, settle or otherwise deal with any Indemnification Claim which relates to any Losses indemnified against hereunder, the indemnified party may (at the indemnifying party's sole cost and expense) defend against, negotiate, settle or otherwise deal with such Indemnification

Claim. If the indemnifying party shall assume the defense of any Indemnification Claim, the indemnified party may participate, at his or its own expense, in the defense of such Indemnification Claim; provided, however, that such indemnified party shall be entitled to participate in any such defense with separate counsel at the expense of the indemnifying party only if (i) so requested by the indemnifying party to participate or (ii) in the reasonable opinion of counsel to the indemnified party a conflict or potential conflict exists between the indemnified party and the indemnifying party that would make representation of both the indemnified party and the indemnifying party by the same legal counsel inadvisable; and provided, further, that the indemnifying party shall not be required to pay for more than one such counsel (plus any appropriate local counsel) for all indemnified parties in connection with any Indemnification Claim. The parties hereto agree to cooperate fully with each other in connection with the defense, negotiation or settlement of any such Indemnification Claim. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 9.6 to the contrary, neither the indemnifying party nor the indemnified party shall, without the written consent of the other party, settle or compromise any Indemnification Claim or permit a default or consent to entry of any judgment unless (A) the claimant(s) and such party provide to such other party an unqualified release from all liability in respect of the Indemnification Claim and (B) in the case of any such settlement, compromise, consent to default or to entry of any judgment by the indemnifying party, such settlement, compromise or judgment otherwise provides solely for payment of monetary damages for which the indemnified party will be indemnified in full. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a settlement offer solely for money damages is made by the applicable third party claimant for which the indemnified party will be indemnified in full, and the indemnifying party notifies the indemnified party in writing of the indemnifying party's willingness to accept the settlement offer and, subject to the applicable limitations of Sections 9.4 and 9.5, pay the amount called for by such offer, and the indemnified party declines to accept such offer, the indemnified party may continue to contest such Indemnification Claim, free of any participation by the indemnifying party, and the amount of any ultimate liability with respect to such Indemnification Claim that the indemnifying party has an obligation to pay hereunder shall be limited to the lesser of (A) the amount of the settlement offer that the indemnified party declined to accept plus the Losses of the indemnified party relating to such Indemnification Claim through the date of its rejection of the settlement offer or (B) the aggregate Losses of the indemnified party with respect to such Indemnification Claim. If the indemnifying party makes any payment on any Indemnification Claim, the indemnifying party shall be subrogated, to the extent of such payment, to all rights and remedies of the indemnified party to any insurance benefits or other claims of the indemnified party with respect to such Indemnification Claim.

(c) After any final decision, judgment or award shall have been rendered by a Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction and the expiration of the time in which to appeal therefrom, or a settlement shall have been consummated, or the indemnified party and the indemnifying party shall have arrived at a mutually binding agreement with respect to an Indemnification Claim hereunder, the indemnified party shall forward to the indemnifying party notice of any sums due and owing by the indemnifying party pursuant to this Agreement with respect to such matter.

9.7 Exclusive Remedy for Matters Subject to Indemnification. The sole and exclusive remedy relating to any matter for which indemnification is provided pursuant to Section 9.2 hereof shall be indemnification in accordance with this Article IX. In furtherance of the foregoing, each of the parties hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any and all other rights, claims and causes of action (including rights of contributions, if any) known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, which exist or may arise in the future, that it may have against LBHI or the Company, as the case may be, arising under or based upon any federal, state or local Law (including any such Law relating to environmental matters or arising under or based upon any securities Law, tort, breach of contract, common Law or otherwise) arising from, or relating to, any of the matters and Liabilities described in Section 9.2(a), Section 9.2(b), Section 9.2(c) or Section 9.2(d). Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 9.7 shall not operate to interfere with or impede the operation of the provisions of Section 2.7, providing for the resolution of certain disputes between the parties relating to the Closing Cash, or Section 10.6.

9.8 Treatment of Indemnification Payments by LBHI to the Company. Upon the payment of any amount by LBHI to the Company pursuant to Section 9.2, LBHI and the Company shall negotiate in good faith to determine the Tax characterization of such payment, and, unless otherwise required by applicable Law, neither LBHI nor the Company shall take any Tax reporting position with respect to such payment that is inconsistent with such characterization.

ARTICLE X

MISCELLANEOUS

10.1 [Reserved].

10.2 Expenses. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, each of LBHI and the Company shall bear its own and its respective Affiliates' expenses incurred in connection with the negotiation and execution of this Agreement and each other agreement, document and instrument contemplated by this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby; provided, that LBHI shall reimburse the Company for the fees and expenses of legal counsel (including local counsel) for the Company (whether or not the Closing occurs); and provided further, that, at the Closing, LBHI shall pay any and all termination and/or expense reimbursement fees that may be payable to any buyer under any other agreement previously entered into by LBHI to acquire the Business, including the buyer under the Stalking Horse Agreement.

10.3 Entire Agreement; Amendments and Waivers. This Agreement (including the schedules and exhibits hereto) and the Ancillary Agreements represent the entire understanding and agreement between the parties hereto and their respective Affiliates with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and understandings between the parties hereto and their respective Affiliates with respect to such subject matter. This Agreement can be amended, supplemented or changed, and any provision hereof can be waived, only by written instrument making specific reference to this Agreement signed by the party against whom enforcement of any such amendment, supplement, modification or waiver is sought. The waiver by any party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other or subsequent breach. No failure on the part of any party to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, power or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of such right, power or remedy by such party preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy.

10.4 Notices. All notices, waivers, approvals, consents and other communications (each a "Notice") under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be (i) delivered personally by hand (with written confirmation of receipt), (ii) sent by facsimile (with written confirmation of transmission, provided that the original Notice also is sent or delivered contemporaneously by the method specified in clause (i) or (iii), or (iii) sent by overnight courier (with written confirmation of receipt), in each case at the following addresses and facsimile numbers (or to such other address or facsimile number as a party may have specified by Notice given to the other party pursuant to this provision):

10.5 Binding Effect; No Third-Party Beneficiaries; Assignment. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Except as set forth in Section 7.11 with respect to officers of the Company and Employee Members and Article IX with respect to members of the Company Group, nothing in this Agreement shall create or be deemed to create any third party beneficiary rights in any Person not a party to this Agreement. No assignment of this Agreement or of any rights or obligations hereunder may be made by either LBHI or the Company, directly or indirectly (by operation of law or otherwise), without the prior written consent of the other party hereto and any attempted assignment without the required consents shall be void. No assignment of any obligations hereunder shall relieve the parties hereto of any such obligations. Upon any such permitted assignment, the references in this Agreement to the assigning party shall also apply to any such assignee unless the context otherwise requires.

10.6 Specific Enforcement.

(a) The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that, except as expressly provided in Section 9.7, each of the parties shall be entitled to equitable relief to prevent or remedy any breach of any provision of this Agreement, without the proof of actual damages, including in the form of an injunction or injunctions or orders for specific performance in respect of such breaches, the payment of monetary damages, the satisfaction of contractual obligations and the reimbursement of Losses. Each party agrees to waive any requirement for the security or posting of any bond in connection with any such equitable remedy. Each party further agrees that the only permitted objection that it may raise in response to any such action for equitable relief is that it contests the existence of a breach or threatened breach of the provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, except as expressly provided in Section 9.2, the sole and exclusive remedy of the Company, LBHI, their respective Affiliates and any other Person for any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement (including with respect to the allocation of Excluded Assets, Excluded Liabilities, Purchased Assets and Assumed Liabilities among the parties) shall be the right of LBHI or the Company, as the case may be, to seek an injunction or injunctions against any such breach or to specifically enforce the other party's obligations hereunder (including the payment of money, the satisfaction of contractual obligations and the reimbursement of Losses) or the right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with, and subject to, the terms and conditions of Section 3.3. Each party agrees, to the extent the other party is successful on the merits, to pay all reasonable costs, expenses and fees, including, without limitation, all reasonable attorneys' fees which may be incurred by such successful party in enforcing its rights under Section 10.6(a). All other claims, rights and causes of action solely with respect to this Agreement, including any right to seek monetary damages, by the Company, LBHI, their respective Affiliates or any other Person against the Company, LBHI, any of their respective Affiliates or any of their or their respective Affiliates' Representatives or former, current or future general or limited partners, members or stockholders is hereby fully waived, released and forever discharged, except for any claims, rights or causes of action permitted pursuant to Article IX.

10.7 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed (including by facsimile transmission) with counterpart signature page or in multiple counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original copy of this Agreement and all of which, when taken together, will be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement.

10.8 GOVERNING LAW; SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION; CONSENT TO SERVICE OF PROCESS; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT, AND ALL CLAIMS OR CAUSES OF ACTION (WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR TORT) THAT MAY BE BASED UPON, ARISE OUT OF OR RELATE TO THIS AGREEMENT (INCLUDING ANY AMENDMENT, SUPPLEMENT OR WAIVER OF THIS AGREEMENT), OR THE NEGOTIATION, EXECUTION OR PERFORMANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT (INCLUDING ANY AMENDMENT, SUPPLEMENT OR WAIVER OF THIS AGREEMENT) AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(b) EACH OF THE PARTIES:

(i) SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF ANY FEDERAL OR STATE COURT LOCATED WITHIN THE BOROUGH OF

Exhibit A

Summary of Terms:
Contribution of Lehman Brothers' Investment Management Division

Portfolio Manager Term Sheet:

This Term Sheet incorporates by reference, in its entirety, that certain term sheet attached to the letter from the Company to certain portfolio managers being submitted to LBHI herewith (such term sheet, the "PM Term Sheet").

All capitalized terms used herein but not herein defined shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the PM Term Sheet.

Operating and Purchase Agreements:

The provisions of this Term Sheet and the PM Term Sheet relating to the Preferred Units, the Common Units, governance and other post-Closing arrangements among the Members shall be set forth in a definitive operating agreement of the Company to be entered into by LBHI and the other Members on the Closing (the "Operating Agreement"). The mechanics of the transfer of Preferred Units and Common Units to LBHI shall be as set forth in a definitive purchase agreement executed and delivered by the Company, as it may be amended from time to time (the "Purchase Agreement"). The Operating Agreement and the Purchase Agreement shall be consistent with this Term Sheet and the PM Term Sheet.

Business

The "Business" means the investment management business conducted by LBHI and its subsidiaries, which for purposes of the Contribution, includes the businesses and the funds set forth on Schedule 1.1(d) to the Amended and Restated Purchase Agreement, dated as of October 3, 2008, by and between IMD Parent LLC, LBHI and the other sellers named therein (as amended by the letter agreement dated as of October 21, 2008, the "Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement"), but excludes the businesses and funds set forth on Schedule 1.1(e) to the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement and any portions of that business represented by the "Excluded Assets" and the "Excluded Liabilities," each as defined in the Purchase Agreement (as defined below).

Estate Distributions:

To the fullest extent possible, the reorganized Company will be structured to permit distributions of the Preferred Units and Common Units held by LBHI or its subsidiaries to creditors of LBHI and its affiliated debtors (an "Estate Distribution") without registration under Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Estate Distribution shall be in accordance with a Chapter 11 Plan approved by the Bankruptcy Court. If Section 1145 is not applicable, the Company will take all necessary actions, including registering the Preferred Units and Common Units held by LBHI or its subsidiaries, to permit an Estate Distribution and subsequent resales of the securities received in the Estate Distribution, as promptly as practicable.

Upon the occurrence of an IPO or an Estate Distribution, the Company will be converted into a corporation and (i) Class A Units and Class B Units will automatically convert into a single class of common stock (the "Common Stock"), and (ii) Preferred Units will automatically convert into preferred stock (the "Preferred Stock"), and the Company will take all actions necessary to cause such Common Stock and Preferred Stock to be listed on a national securities exchange. All vesting features of the Units will continue following such conversion.

For all purposes of this Term Sheet and the PM Term Sheet (other than with respect to the first clause (e) referenced in the paragraph below entitled "Major Decisions") the term "IPO" shall be deemed to include any transaction or, a series of transactions, which would result in or would require the Company having to register any class of its securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation through backdoor (e.g., mergers) and creeping public offerings.

Closing Cash Balance:

As part of the Contribution, LBHI shall transfer to the Company and its subsidiaries cash and cash equivalents equal to, in the aggregate, the sum of (i) an amount equal to the excess of $100 million over Closing Working Capital, plus (ii) an agreed estimate of the present value of the earn-out liabilities set forth on Schedule 1.1(a) of the Purchase Agreement as of the Closing (which liabilities were estimated to be approximately $136 million as of December 1, 2008), in each case, only to the extent such liability has not come due in the ordinary course of its terms (i.e., without any acceleration of any portion thereof) and has not been paid on or prior to Closing (such sum, the "Closing Cash Target"). Any amounts contemplated in clause (ii) that are determined by the Company not to be payable shall be paid to LBHI promptly after such determination and any such payment shall not be treated as a distribution in redemption of, or otherwise in respect of, any Units. All cash in the Business in excess of the Closing Cash Target shall be retained by LBHI.

There shall be no other adjustments made at the Closing.

"Closing Working Capital" means, as of the Closing, the amount equal to the current assets of the Company (excluding cash and cash equivalents) less the current liabilities of the Company (which shall not include any income tax liabilities), calculated in accordance with GAAP and past practice.

Adjustment to Liquidation Preference

The Liquidation Preference shall be increased (on a dollar-for-dollar basis) if, at the time of Closing, the sum of the Closing S&P Adjustment and the Estimated Closing NB Adjustment (in each case to be calculated in accordance with the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement but as of the Closing pursuant to the Purchase Agreement but subject to the definition below) (the sum being the "Total Adjustment") is less than $850 million. The amount by which the Liquidation Preference shall be increased shall be 50% of the difference between the Total Adjustment and $850 million; provided, however that the amount by which the Liquidation Preference shall be increased shall not be greater than $100 million.

For the purposes of the calculation of the Closing S&P Adjustment, "S&P Percentage" means 100%, minus the higher of (i) 78.69%, and (ii) the average closing price of the S&P 500 Index for the 90 consecutive calendar days (but counting only full trading days) beginning 45 days prior to the Closing Date divided by 1202.77, expressed as a percentage.

Excess Cash Flow

- The Preferred Return shall be payable in cash, to the extent of Excess Cash Flow, and in-kind to the extent Excess Cash Flow is insufficient to pay such amounts in full.
- At least 60% of the amount, if any, by which Excess Cash Flow (calculated on an annual basis) exceeds the Preferred Return shall be used to repurchase or redeem outstanding Preferred Units.
- “Excess Cash Flow” shall be equal to EBITDA less changes in ordinary course working capital, capital expenditures, expenditures for acquisitions, debt service, amounts accrued with respect to unvested Preferred Units, GP and SLP commitments that are committed at Closing and taxes and/or tax distributions (as applicable) and certain other adjustments as may be agreed prior to the Closing between LBHI and the Company.
- If at any time, and for so long as, the Preferred Return is not paid entirely in cash on two or more consecutive semi-annual payment dates, holders of the Preferred Units shall have the right (i) to terminate the employment of the chief executive officer and hire a replacement chief executive officer, (ii) approve the compensation (including bonus) for members of senior management (other than portfolio managers who are Employee Members (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) as of the date hereof and, if agreed to by LBHI and the Company, any other portfolio managers who become Employee Members after the date hereof) in consultation with the Board or the Compensation Committee, and (iii) approve the Company’s annual operating budget; provided, however, that upon the earlier to occur of an IPO or Estate Distribution, the rights of holders of the Preferred Units under clause (i) above shall terminate and the rights granted under clause (ii) above shall continue only to the extent that the holders of the Preferred Units shall have the right to consult with the Compensation Committee (or the equivalent thereof) but shall not have approval rights. (See also additional rights upon default described in “Board of Managers,” “Officers” and “Certain Exit Rights” below.)
- The Company may, at any time in its sole discretion, redeem any or all Preferred Units outstanding for an amount equal to their Liquidation Preference.
- Upon the occurrence of any “Triggering Event” (as defined below), all outstanding Preferred Units shall be redeemed by the Company for an amount equal to 100% of their Liquidation Preference.
- “Triggering Event” shall mean (i) any “Change of Control” (as defined below) of the Company; (ii) any sale, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, considered on a consolidated basis; (iii) any liquidation of the Company; or (iv) any breach of the terms of the protective provisions of the Operating Agreement (as defined in Exhibit A to the Purchase Agreement) which are for the benefit of the holders of the Preferred Units, which default continues following notice and an opportunity to cure; provided, that in no event shall an Estate Distribution or the appointment of the Default Managers be deemed to be a "Triggering Event."

- In the event of an IPO, at least 50% of the net cash proceeds received by the Company shall be used to repurchase or redeem the Preferred Stock.

Post-Closing Incentive Compensation: The Board of the Company, subject to the approval rights set forth herein, may approve additional equity compensation.

Conditions to Closing: The Purchase Agreement will include customary conditions to Closing; provided, that no client or other third party consents will be a condition to Closing (other than material regulatory consents).

Employment Agreements: It will be a condition to LBHI's obligation to close the transaction that each Management Member has executed and delivered a definitive employment agreement with the Company and a counterpart to the Operating Agreement.

Representations, Warranties and Covenants: The Purchase Agreement will include appropriate representations and warranties as agreed to by LBHI and the Company, but will not include any representations or warranties regarding the Business. The representations and warranties will not survive the Closing.

The Purchase Agreement will not provide for indemnification, except with respect to the following Liabilities: (i) all Liabilities for any and all (a) income taxes for all tax periods ending on (and including) or prior to the Closing Date and (b) taxes other than income taxes, except such taxes attributable to the business or operations of any entity the equity interests of which are contributed by LBHI to the Company or that are attributable to the Business; (ii) PBGC and U.S. pension related liabilities; (iii) U.K. pension related liabilities; (iv) liabilities arising from advisory services provided to the LibertyView hedge funds and separate accounts advised to invest in LibertyView; and (v) any pension and benefit liabilities created as a result of the Company continuing to be in the same controlled group as LBHI. These indemnification obligations shall survive the Closing until 45 days after the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations (including any extensions thereof); provided however that the indemnification obligations with respect to matters described in clause (iv) of the preceding sentence shall survive for 9 months.

The Purchase Agreement will provide that (i), with respect to each income tax return of an Acquired Subsidiary that pertains to a tax period ending on or before the Closing Date, prior to the due date for the filing of such tax return (taking into account any applicable extensions), LBHI shall provide to the Company an amount of cash equal to the amount of tax shown due on such tax return, and (ii), with respect to each income tax return of an Acquired Subsidiary that pertains to a tax period that includes, but does not begin or end on, the Closing Date (a "Straddle Period"), prior to the due date for the filing of such tax return (taking into account any applicable extensions), LBHI shall provide to the Company an amount of cash equal to the portion of the amount of tax shown due on such tax return that is attributable to the portion of such Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date. For purposes of the preceding clause (ii), the amount of tax attributable to the pre-Closing Date portion of any Straddle Period shall be calculated using customary "straddle period" provisions.

Board of Managers; Officers: The Company will establish a Board of Managers, consisting initially of 7 Managers, appointed as follows:

- Holders of Class A Units shall be entitled to appoint 2 Managers to the Board.
- Holders of Class B Units shall be entitled to appoint 4 Managers to the Board.
- At least 2 Managers appointed by holders of the Class B Units shall be "independent" within the meaning of New York Stock Exchange listing requirements and Rule 10A-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, regardless of whether the Company is subject to such rules at the time of such appointment.
- The then current CEO of the Company shall be a Manager.
- The Board shall establish a Compensation Committee and Audit Committee, and any other committees it deems appropriate; provided that (i) at least one Manager appointed by holders of Class A Units and at least one "independent" Manager shall be appointed to each Committee; and (ii) such independent Manager shall meet the independence and other requirements for such Committees under the New York Stock Exchange listing requirements and Rule 10A-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, regardless of whether the Company is subject to such rules at the time.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Preferred Return is not paid entirely in cash on four or more consecutive semi-annual payment dates, the parties shall attempt to mutually agree on what additional rights should be given to the holders of the Preferred Units until such time as the Preferred Return has been entirely paid in cash for two consecutive semi-annual payment dates. If, however, the parties cannot agree on such additional rights, the holders of the Preferred Units shall have the right to appoint 4 additional Managers ("Default Managers"). The Default Managers need not meet the independence requirements described above. The Default Managers shall serve as members of the Board until such time that the Preferred Return has been paid entirely in cash for two or more consecutive semi-annual payment dates.

Either class of holders of Common Units may at any time remove and replace any of its respective representative Managers, but, except as contemplated in these summary terms, neither class of holder of Common Units may remove any of the other class's representative Managers.

The Company will have officers with such authority and functions comparable to the authority and function of officers of a Delaware corporation.

Major Decisions:

Except as otherwise provided in the paragraph below entitled "Certain Exit Rights," for so long as at least 20% of the Preferred Units remain outstanding, consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding, vested Preferred Units will be required prior to the Company taking any of the following actions:

- a) declaration and/or payment of any dividends or any distributions on any class of units except for (i) tax distributions (as described in the paragraph of the PM Term Sheet entitled "Tax Distributions"), and (ii) distributions made in respect of the Preferred Units in accordance with their terms;
- b) any purchase, redemption or other acquisition of any Common Units of the Company, other than repurchases from employees, directors or consultants pursuant to stock restriction agreements or plans approved by the Board that grant to the Company a right of repurchase upon termination of employment or of services, as applicable;
- c) any sale by the Company of all or substantially all of its assets; any reorganization, consolidation, or merger of the Company with another entity or other transaction or series of transactions having the effect of a reorganization, consolidation or merger; unless, in each case, the Preferred Units would be paid in full in cash from the proceeds of such transaction;
- d) the creation (by reclassification or otherwise) of any new class or series of equity securities having rights, preferences or privileges senior to or on par with the Preferred Units;
- e) initiation of an IPO, unless the IPO involves a registration of at least $100 million of Preferred Units or Class A Units and all of the net proceeds thereof are used to redeem or repurchase Preferred Units; provided that an Estate Distribution will not be deemed to be "IPO" for purposes of this provision.

The parties agree to negotiate in good faith to include in the Operating Agreement an efficient mechanism for obtaining the consent of the holders of the Preferred Units after an IPO or an Estate Distribution.

Except as otherwise provided in the paragraph below entitled "Certain Exit Rights,” until the occurrence of an IPO or an Estate Distribution, consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Class A Units will be required prior to the Company taking any of the following actions:

- a) declaration and/or payment of any dividends or any distributions on any class of units, except for (i) tax distributions (as described in the paragraph of the PM Term Sheet entitled “Tax Distributions”) and (ii) distributions made in respect of the Preferred Units in accordance with their terms;
- b) any purchase, redemption or other acquisition of any Common Units of the Company, other than repurchases from employees, directors or consultants pursuant to stock restriction agreements or plans approved by the Board that grant to the Company a right of repurchase upon termination of employment or of services, as applicable;
- c) any sale by the Company of all or substantially all of its assets; any reorganization, consolidation, or merger of the Company with another entity or other transaction or series of transactions having the effect of a reorganization, consolidation or merger;
- d) any increase or decrease in the authorized size of the Board, except an increase in connection with the appointment of Default Managers or a decrease in connection with the resignation of Default Managers, in each case as contemplated above;
- e) acquisitions, dispositions, leases or capital expenditures (in each case other than in the ordinary course of business) in excess of 5% of the Company’s fair market value (as reasonably determined by the Board of Managers);
- f) incurrence or guarantee of any indebtedness in excess of $15,000,000 or the creation of any lien (other than customary permitted liens to be described in the Operating Agreement) over the assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, other than the incurrence of debt the proceeds of which are used exclusively to redeem or repurchase Preferred Units, or to buy back Common Units from employees on termination of employment or, to the extent that there is not adequate Excess Cash Flow to pay interest or principal on Preferred Units, the incurrence of debt to pay such interest or principal or to cure any payment default in respect of Preferred Units;
- g) the establishment, investment or participation in or loan of money or equipment to, any partnership or joint-venture having a value in excess of 5% of the Company’s fair market value (as reasonably determined by the Board of Managers);

- h) the amendment of the Operating Agreement in a manner that is detrimental to the rights of the Class A Units;
- i) creation or issuance of any equity securities of the Company, including equity for additional equity-based compensation plans (including the issuance of profits interests or other equity interests as incentive compensation to employees);
- j) (i) making, modifying or revoking any tax election or adopting or changing any tax accounting or allocation method (iii) filing or amending any material tax return, (ii) initiating, settling or compromising any material tax audit, litigation or other dispute or (iv) otherwise taking any material tax position or making any material tax statement (each, a "Tax Action"), which Tax Action could reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on the holders of Class A Units;
- k) subsequent appointment of a new CEO of the Company (should the Board decide to replace George Walker or his successor);
- l) conversion of the Company into a corporation in anticipation of an IPO, unless the Preferred Units are no longer outstanding or the proceeds of such IPO, together with either a loan or together with any other source of fundings shall be used to retire all of the outstanding Preferred Units; and
- m) initiation of an IPO, unless the Preferred Units are no longer outstanding or the proceeds of such IPO shall be used to retire all of the outstanding Preferred Units.

Certain Exit Rights:

In the event that, at any time after the Closing, the Preferred Return is not paid entirely in cash on two or more semi-annual payment dates and at any time after the third anniversary of the Closing at least 50% of the Preferred Units that were outstanding at Closing remain outstanding, any party that holds at least 50% of the vested Preferred Units outstanding shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to cause the Company to repurchase any vested Preferred Units held by such party at a price equal to the Liquidation Preference; provided, however, that at least one of the defaults with respect to the Preferred Return remains uncured at the time of such repurchase.

In the event that, at any time after the Closing, the Preferred Return is not paid entirely in cash on one or more semi-annual payment dates and at any time after the fourth anniversary of the Closing at least 50% of the Preferred Units that were outstanding at Closing remain outstanding, any party that holds at least 50% of the vested Preferred Units outstanding shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to cause the Company to repurchase any vested Preferred Units held by such party at a price equal to the Liquidation Preference; provided, however, that at least one of the defaults with respect to the Preferred Return remains uncured at the time of such repurchase.

The rights of holders of Preferred Units described in this section shall terminate upon an Estate Distribution or IPO.

Notwithstanding the above paragraphs of this section or anything else to the contrary herein, the Board shall have the right (without requiring the consent or approval of any Member) to initiate a sale of the Company, initiate an IPO, issue securities and/or incur indebtedness, in each case, to the extent necessary to comply with its obligations under this section. If the Company is unable to repurchase such Preferred Units within four months after a request to do so, then any party that holds at least 50% of the vested Preferred Units outstanding shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to cause the Company to enter into an agreement providing for a sale of the Company or its assets.

Other Governance
Arrangements:

The Operating Agreement will contain customary governance arrangements, including (but not limited to) rights of first offer, “tag-along” rights, “drag-along” rights, and pro rata pre-emptive rights regarding any new issuance of interests in the Company.

Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, certain Management Members shall have the rights set forth on the PM Term Sheet.

Other Transfer Rights/Restrictions:

Prior to an Estate Distribution or an IPO, no Member may transfer its Common Units or Preferred Units, except to any of its wholly owned subsidiaries or for estate planning purposes, and in any such case, only so long as such transferee entity agrees in writing to be bound, and such Member continues to be bound, by the terms of the Operating Agreement, including applicable rights of first offer, tag-along and drag along rights, etc. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in no event shall any Member be entitled to transfer any of its Common Units or Preferred Units to any person or entity that is principally engaged in a business that is competitive to the Company and its subsidiaries, other than in connection with a Change of Control or a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries or, after an IPO or an Estate Distribution, pursuant to (i) a public offering and sale pursuant to an effective registration statement filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or (ii) a broker transaction pursuant to Rule 144 promulgated or any other applicable exemption under the Securities Act.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) LBHI shall be entitled to transfer its Preferred Units in connection with the conversion of the Company to a corporation by reason of an Estate Distribution or an IPO, (ii) prior to an Estate Distribution or an IPO, LBHI shall not be entitled to transfer Class A Units or Preferred Units if after giving effect to such transfer LBHI or its affiliates would hold less than a majority of the Class A Units or Preferred Units, as applicable, and (iii) following an Estate Distribution, all holders of Preferred Stock and Common Stock distributed pursuant to such Estate Distribution shall be permitted to freely transfer such securities subject to applicable securities laws.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Term Sheet, prior to the conversion of the Company to a corporation pursuant to an IPO or an Estate Distribution, no Member may transfer its Common Units or Preferred Units if such transfer would cause the Company to be taxable as a “publicly traded partnership” for U.S. federal income tax purposes or would otherwise violate any securities laws (including, without limitation, the Securities Act, the Investment Company Act of 1940 and any applicable blue sky laws).

Registration Rights:

Demand Rights: If Members holding a majority of the Preferred Units or the Class A Units request that the Company file a registration statement to register any Units held by them, subject to pro rata reductions recommended in writing by the underwriter and provided further that such holders register at least $200,000,000 of Preferred Units or Class A Units representing at least 25% of the total number of then-outstanding Class A Units, the Company will use its best efforts to cause such Units to be registered; provided, however, that the Company shall not be obligated to effect any such registration prior to four (4) years following the Closing or six (6) months following the consummation of an IPO. The Company shall not be obligated to effect more than two (2) such demand registrations, which shall be shared equally between the Members; provided, however, that if the Company shall not be S-3 eligible within the first available time period after its initial public offering or shall fail to maintain its S-3 eligibility at any time thereafter, then each Member shall be entitled to an additional demand registration.

Piggy-Back Rights: The Members shall have the right to include their Units in any registration statement filed for the sale of Units subject to pro rata reductions recommended in writing by the underwriter (with priority given to the sale of Units by the Company).

S-3 Rights: Following such time as the Company becomes S-3 eligible, (i) holders of the Preferred Units, (ii) holders of the Class A Units having a fair market value in excess of $5,000,000, or (iii) holders of the Class B Units having a fair market value in excess of $5,000,000 can request that the Company file and maintain a shelf registration.

Expenses: The Company shall bear registration expenses (exclusive of underwriting discounts and commissions) of all demand, piggy-back, and S-3 registrations (including the expense of one counsel for all Members participating in such registration).

180-Day Lock-Up Provision: Subject to customary exceptions, upon the reasonable request of the underwriters, each of the Members of the Company will agree that it will not sell its Common Units for a specified period (but not to exceed 180 days) following the effective date of the Company’s initial public offering, provided that all officers and directors and non-officer holders of 1% or more of the Company’s common shares execute similar agreements.

PRIVILEGED & CONFIDENTIAL

EXHIBIT B TO LETTER TO CERTAIN PORTFOLIO MANAGERS

Summary of Terms:

Contribution of Lehman Brothers' Investment Management Division

Structure:

Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. ("LBHI") will contribute, or cause to be contributed (the "Contribution"), the assets and subsidiaries used in the operation of the Business (as defined in Exhibit A to the Purchase Agreement (as defined below)) to a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company") formed by one or more senior managers (other than portfolio managers) of the Business. LBHI and the Company will work together in good faith to (i) minimize the adverse effects any particular transaction structure would have on the possible post-Closing joint and several liability of the Company or any of its subsidiaries for pre-Closing tax and pension liabilities of LBHI and its affiliates and (ii) implement the Contribution and issuance of Units (as defined below) in a tax efficient manner for all parties.

As part of the Contribution, the Company will issue to LBHI and Management Members (as defined below), or reserve for issuance to future Management Members, (i) preferred units in the Company ("Preferred Units") with an aggregate liquidation preference equal to $875 million, plus any accrued and unpaid Preferred Return (as defined below) (as may be adjusted as described in Exhibit A to the Purchase Agreement, the "Liquidation Preference"), (ii) Class A Common Units ("Class A Units"), representing 49% of the total number of Common Units to be issued or reserved for issuance as of the Closing, and (iii) Class B Common Units ("Class B Units," and together with Class A Units, "Common Units," and together with the Preferred Units, the "Units"), representing 51% of the total number of Common Units to be issued or reserved for issuance as of the Closing, each as more fully described below.

- At the Closing, the Company will issue to LBHI 93% of the Preferred Units and all of the Class A Units.
- At the Closing, the Company will issue to Management Members 7% of the Preferred Units and all of the Class B Units, to be allocated as follows:

Percent of Total Employee Equity (i.e., Class B Units & Preferred Units)

[REDACTED]

- The Class B Common Units and Preferred Units issued to Management Members will be subject to vesting, as described below.

Each member of the Business granted Class B or Preferred Units and LBHI shall herein be referred to as a "Member."

"Management Members" shall mean those members of senior management, portfolio managers and other key employees of the Business who have executed a letter indicating their agreement to the terms of the transaction on or prior to the execution of the Purchase Agreement and any other such persons subsequently proposed by the Company and accepted by LBHI. Following the Closing, subject to the consent rights described below, the Company's Board of Managers shall designate the members of senior management, portfolio managers and other key employees of the Company and its affiliates that are eligible to be granted Class B or Preferred Units.

In connection with the Contribution, LBHI shall have the right to transfer a portion of the Units it receives to one or more of its subsidiaries.

Preferred Units:

The preferred liquidation value of the Preferred Units shall be equal to the Liquidation Preference. The Preferred Units shall have the following rights and privileges:

- The Preferred Units shall bear an annual preferred return (the "Preferred Return"), payable on a semi-annual basis (the "Preferred Return Payment Date"), in an amount equal to:
 - until December 31, 2009, 4% of their outstanding preferred liquidation value;
 - from January 1, 2010 until December 31, 2010, 7% of their outstanding preferred liquidation value; and
 - from and after January 1, 2011, 10% of their outstanding preferred liquidation value.
- Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, on any Preferred Return Payment Date occurring in 2009, 2010, 2011 or 2012, the average of the closing price of the S&P Index on the two billing dates for the substantial majority of the equity-based AUM that immediately precede such Preferred Return Payment Date is less than 85% of 858.63 then the Preferred Return payable on such Preferred Return Payment Date shall be equal to:
 - for payment dates on or prior to December 31, 2009, 2% of their outstanding preferred liquidation value of any such payment;
 - for payment dates from January 1, 2010 until December 31, 2010, 3.5% of their outstanding preferred liquidation value; and
 - for payment dates from January 1, 2011 until December 31, 2012, 7% of their outstanding preferred liquidation value.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Preferred Return shall always be 10% of the outstanding liquidation value from and after January 1, 2013.

Common Units

Each vested Common Unit will have one vote.

All distributions of cash or property, whether as a result of a liquidation, dividend or otherwise (after provision of distributions to the holders of the Preferred Units), shall be paid to holders of Common Units on a pro rata basis.

Vesting of Units Held by Management:

Class B Units and Preferred Units issued to Management Members at the Closing and thereafter shall vest with respect to 1/4 of such Member's initial grant on the second, third, fourth and fifth anniversary of the Closing, subject to the Management Member remaining employed by the Company or its subsidiaries on such date and subject to the following acceleration events:

- Upon a Member's death or disability, the greater of (i) 50% of the then unvested Preferred Units and Class B Units or (ii) 25% of such Member's entire grant, shall vest;
- Upon an Involuntary Termination (as defined below), 25% of all Preferred Units and Class B Units held by such Member shall vest (up to 100% of the grant);
- Upon a "Change of Control" outstanding Preferred Units shall vest in full; and
- In the event of an Involuntary Termination within two years after a "Change of Control" all outstanding Class B Units shall vest in full.

"Change of Control" shall mean a change in ownership of a corporation, change in effective control of a corporation or change in the ownership of a substantial portion of the assets of a corporation as provided for in the U.S. Department of Treasury regulations (the "Treasury Regulations") under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and applied to the Company as if it were a corporation (a "409A Change of Control"), it being understood that a change in ownership or a change in effective control of less than 50% of the equity of the Company, an Estate Distribution, a change in the composition of the Board of Managers as a result of the appointment of Default Managers or any increase in the amount of equity of the Company owned at any time by LBHI or its affiliates, shall not constitute a Change of Control.

A holder of Class B Units or Preferred Units shall not be entitled to any voting, distribution or other rights on unvested Units, other than the right to appoint Board members; provided, however, that with respect to unvested Units, the amount of distributions payable in respect of those Units shall be accrued and shall be paid (to the extent vested) by the Company to the applicable holder upon the earliest of: (i) the scheduled vesting date of the Units; (ii) a Member's "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A; and (iii) a 409A Change of Control.

In the event the employment of a Management Member is terminated, except as specified above, all unvested Class B and Preferred Units held by such Management Member shall be forfeited without consideration.

Forfeited Units shall be eligible for future grants to Management Members.

Tax Distributions:

Subject to available cash, the Company shall make distributions ("Tax Distributions") (i) to the Members designed to enable the Members to satisfy their federal, state and local income tax liabilities arising from their allocable share of Company net income and (ii) to the Management Members that hold Preferred Units designed to enable such Management Members to satisfy their federal, state and local income tax liabilities arising upon the vesting of such Preferred Units. The Company shall endeavor to make these distributions on a quarterly basis. Subject to the paragraph immediately below, the aggregate amount to which each Member shall be entitled in any year shall equal the product of (i) (a) the net cumulative Company taxable income (if any) allocable to such Member for that year and all prior years of such Member's membership (including any Company taxable income allocated under Section 704(c) of the Code) plus (b) the income realized by such Member upon the vesting of Preferred Units for that year and all prior years of such Member's membership and (ii) an assumed tax rate equal to the highest marginal U.S. federal, state and local income tax rates for an individual residing in New York City.

As further described below, Tax Distributions shall be reduced by all prior distributions made by the Company to such Member (including prior Tax Distributions) and any Tax Distributions received by a Member shall reduce future non-Tax Distributions to which such Member may otherwise become entitled. The foregoing shall be applied to each Member on a class-by-class basis. Therefore, Tax Distributions received by a Member in respect of Company taxable income allocable to its Common Units shall reduce future distributions upon its Common Units but not distributions upon its Preferred Units. Likewise, prior distributions made to a Member upon its Preferred Units shall not reduce the Tax Distributions to such Member in respect of Company taxable income allocable to its Common Units.

Company Call Rights
and Forfeiture:

In the event the employment of a Management Member is terminated prior to an IPO or an Estate Distribution, the Company shall have the right to repurchase any vested Common and Preferred Units held by such employee.

- If the employee is a "Good Leaver" (i.e., termination was by the Company other than for "Cause" or by the employee for "Good Reason"), the Company may repurchase any vested Class B and Preferred Units held by such employee for a price equal to 100% of the fair market value for such Units (as may be increased below, the "Good Leaver Price").
- If the employee is a "Bad Leaver" (i.e., termination was by the Company for "Cause" or by the employee other than for "Good Reason"), the Company may repurchase any vested Class B and Preferred Units held by such employee for a price equal to 75% of the fair market value for such Units (the "Bad Leaver Price").

Any Units repurchased or forfeited pursuant to these terms shall be returned to the pool of Units reserved for issuance to Management Members.

Costs and expenses:

All costs and expenses incurred in connection with the transaction shall be borne by the party incurring such expenses; provided that LBHI will, whether or not the transaction closes, pay all reasonable and documented legal fees and expenses of one counsel (and local counsel) arising out of the negotiation and drafting of the arrangements contemplated hereby, on behalf of the Company and the Management Members.

Any amounts required to be paid under the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement by any of the Sellers (as such term is defined therein) shall be "Excluded Liabilities" under the Purchase Agreement.

Annual Salary and Compensation for Management Members

Salaries and bonuses ("Annual Compensation") shall be consistent with past practices (which, in the case of the Management Members on the institutional side, shall mean the recently developed formulaic program); provided that each year at least ■% of the Annual Compensation of a Management Member shall be paid in cash, unless the Management Member voluntarily elects otherwise, and no more than ■% shall be required to be deferred.

Company Call Rights
and
Forfeiture/Management
Members Conversion
Rights

With respect to the exercise of call rights against a Good Leaver, in the event of the consummation of a liquidity event within six months after such exercise, the fair market value shall be redetermined (and may be increased but not reduced) by the Board of Managers in good faith in light of the value implied by such liquidity event.

In connection with a Management Member's termination of employment with the Company and its affiliates, the Company must determine whether to exercise its call right and notify such Management Member before the later to occur of ninety days following (a) the six month anniversary of such termination of employment and (b) the date on which the Company learns that such Management Member has become a Bad Leaver; provided, that, if the Company is restricted by applicable financing covenants or otherwise from paying cash to such Management Member to fund the repurchase of his or her Units at the time the Company serves its exercise notice, the exercise of the Company's call right by the Company will be delayed until such time as the Company is permitted to pay such Management Member the applicable purchase price for his or her Units (as described above) determined based on the fair market value of the Units as of the time when the call right is exercised.

Cause/Good Reason/Good Leaver

- A "Good Leaver" shall be any Management Member whose employment terminates as a result of (i) an Involuntary Termination; (ii) death or disability; or (iii) a Qualified Retirement; provided, however, that in each case such Management Member shall cease to be a Good Leaver if the Company determines that the Management Member has materially breached any of the Restrictive Covenants to which such Management Member is subject. Any Management Member who ceases to be employed and is not a Good Leaver shall be a Bad Leaver. A Good Leaver who becomes a Bad Leaver post termination forfeits, or if already paid shall return the excess (if any) of the Good Leaver Price over the Bad Leaver Price. No such clawback shall be imposed more than 90 days following the end of the Restricted Period applicable to Non-Solicitation Obligations in the event that those obligations were the covenants which were breached by such Management Member.
- "Qualified Retirement" shall mean (i) for any Management Member who is employed at the time of the Closing, retirement by a Management Member who (a) has reached the age of 45; (b) has at least 10 years of combined service with the Company (or its subsidiaries); (c) has a minimum of five years of service with the Company (or its subsidiaries) following the Contribution; (d) has provided the Company with at least one year's advance notice of such Qualified Retirement; and (e) has taken reasonable steps to provide an orderly transition for his or her business or fund; and (ii) otherwise, retirement by a Management Member who (a) has reached the age of 60; (b) has at least 15 years of combined service with the Company (or its subsidiaries); (c) has a minimum of five years of service with the Company (or its subsidiaries) following the Contribution; (d) has provided the Company with at least one year's advance notice of such Qualified Retirement; and (e) has taken reasonable steps to provide the Company with an orderly transition for his or her business or fund.

- "Involuntary Termination" shall mean termination by the Company without Cause or termination by a Management Member for Good Reason.
- "Cause" shall mean (i) gross negligence or willful misconduct of a material nature of the Management Member in connection with the performance of his or her duties; (ii) indictment or conviction for (or pleading guilty or pleading no contest or nolo contendere to) a felony; (iii) a non-de minimis intentional act of dishonesty or misappropriation (or attempted misappropriation) of the Company's or any of its affiliates' funds or property (other than a good faith expense account dispute related to a business expense charged in accordance with the Company's or its subsidiaries' policies or procedures); (iv) a material breach of any of the obligations under the Operating Agreement or any employment agreement between the parties, which breach is not remedied within a reasonable period of time after written notice by the Company; or (v) a material breach of the Company's or its subsidiaries' written or electronically posted policies or procedures that is not remedied after a reasonable period of time following written notice of such breach by the Company.
- "Good Reason" shall mean: (i) a material diminution in the Management Member's base compensation; (ii) a material diminution in the Management Member's duties, or responsibilities; (iii) a relocation of at least 30 miles in the location of the principal place of business of the Management Member; (iv) any breach of the annual salary and bonus commitment set forth above (including a material adverse change to the Management Member's formulaic production compensation and/or bonus formula) including without limitation an increase in the 25% deferral percentage set forth above; (v) an intentional and material reduction in the Acquired Business' client support services as in effect on the date hereof without the consent of at least 2/3 of the similarly situated Portfolio Managers serving on the Board of Managers at such time; and (vi) any other action or inaction that constitutes a material breach by the Company of the Operating Agreement or any employment agreement between the parties; provided, however, that the Management Member shall have provided the Company written notice within 60 days following the occurrence of Good Reason and the Company shall have failed to cure the events constituting Good Reason within 60 days after receipt of such notice.

Restrictive covenants From and after the date of the Purchase Agreement and for the Restricted Period, as defined below, Members shall not:

[REDACTED]

Most Favored Nation If, from the date hereof until the date that is six months following the Closing, the Company enters into any employment or compensation arrangement with any Portfolio Manager providing more favorable terms with respect to any of the matters described above, then each Portfolio Manager shall have the right to accept the benefit of any such more favorable terms; provided, that such Portfolio Manager also accepts any less favorable terms in such arrangement that were in good faith, a condition of providing the more favorable term; provided, further, that this provision shall not apply with respect to (i) junior members of Management designated by the Compensation Committee and for whom the Restricted Period may be shorter than that set forth above, (ii) the size of any individual or team equity grant or allocation, (iii) variations in the amount of Annual Compensation, or (iv) differences in the funds used for purposes of measuring appreciation or depreciation of the Deferred Annual Compensation.

Re: Personal Indemnification

Attached is a memorandum setting out the Company's policy concerning indemnification of its current officers and employees. We are continuing the Company's long-standing policy of protecting officers and employees against claims of personal liability relating to their service to the Company, to the full extent permitted by law.

While the details are reviewed in the attached, the following are the most important points:

- With respect to your service as an officer or employee of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. after September 15, 2008 (when LBHI's Chapter 11 case started), you will be eligible for indemnity to the same extent and following the same procedures that the Company has historically applied.
 - This includes indemnity with respect to service not only to LBHI but also as a director or officer of a subsidiary and as a director of a portfolio or other company on whose board you are requested by the Company to serve. You may assume that the Company's action in electing you a director or officer of a subsidiary constitutes such a request, and the Company will confirm its request in the case of any other company.
 - The Company will also provide advancement of expenses reasonably incurred in responding to a lawsuit or investigation before conclusion of the matter on the same basis it traditionally has. If you are not currently serving as an officer of LBHI, LBHI hereby agrees that it shall apply to you the same provisions of its Bylaws requiring advancement as are applicable to officers of LBHI.
- With respect to your service as an officer or employee of LBHI or a director, officer or employee of a subsidiary before September 15, 2008, the Company, in light of Chapter 11 requirements, generally will not be in a position to make indemnity or advancement payments where a claim involves actions taken before such date.

- However, the Company maintains directors and officers liability insurance coverage. You will have the benefit of such coverage for service as an officer of LBHI or a director or officer of a subsidiary, either before or after September 15, 2008, on the terms and conditions of the policies. We expect that advancement of expenses generally will be provided under such coverage where not provided by the Company.
- You need take no action in order to be covered by the Company's indemnity program. However, if you are required to respond personally to a lawsuit or investigation or if a claim is threatened against you, you must give the Company prompt written notice. In such event, you will be promptly advised of the steps to be taken to protect your interests.

While this is an area that involves some technical complexities, we are committed to doing all that we reasonably can do to provide the personal protection for our current officers and employees that the Company has traditionally provided.

Very truly yours,

MEMORANDUM

Re: Policy Concerning Indemnification of Officers and Employees. It has been, and remains, the policy of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. ("LBHI") and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company") to indemnify its officers and employees against personal liability arising by reason of their service to the Company, in the manner and to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Bylaws of LBHI set out the specifics of this policy (and, generally, comparable provisions for their directors, officers and employees are contained in the bylaws of Lehman Brothers Inc. and in the organizational documents of most subsidiaries). LBHI's Bylaws are publicly available and a copy will be provided upon request. Indemnity is provided against expenses, including legal fees, reasonably incurred in responding to a lawsuit or investigation, as well as against judgments, fines and other liabilities, where permitted by law. Advancement of such expenses before the conclusion of a lawsuit or investigation is required in the case of officers and permitted (and usually has been provided) in the case of non-officer employees, in each case upon receipt of an undertaking to repay such advances if the officer or employee is ultimately determined not to be entitled to indemnity under applicable law.

The operation of the Company's indemnity and advancement program will vary depending on whether a lawsuit, investigation, judgment, fine or other liability arises out of an event occurring before or after the commencement of LBHI's Chapter 11 case on September 15, 2008. With respect to service as an officer or employee of LBHI on or after September 15, 2008, the practices concerning indemnification and advancement of expenses that have previously been applied will continue to be applied. Accordingly, if you are required to respond to a lawsuit or investigation concerning an action taken or omitted (or alleged to have been taken or omitted) by you as an officer or employee of LBHI after September 15, 2008, including service as a director of a subsidiary of LBHI or of another company, you will be afforded indemnity and advancement of expenses in accordance with LBHI's Bylaws. You will also have the comparable rights with respect to any subsidiary involved in the matter provided by its organizational documents. The Company nevertheless reserves the right to make an indemnity payment or an advance of expenses that is to be provided in such circumstances subject to approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

With respect to expenses associated with a lawsuit or investigation, or other liability, relating to an event that occurred before September 15, 2008, LBHI will not be making advances or indemnity payments as a general matter. Similarly, a subsidiary will not make an indemnity payment or advance expenses (whether or not the subsidiary has commenced a Chapter 11 case) with respect to any such liability, unless required by law to do so. It is expected that any claims for such an indemnity payment will be dealt with only in the same manner and on the same terms as other comparable creditor claims. Officers and directors, however, should have access to liability insurance coverage as discussed below.

LBHI currently has in effect directors and officers liability insurance policies with respect to claims arising out of events occurring either before or after the commencement of LBHI's Chapter 11 case. In connection with your present and past service as a director or officer of the Company you may be entitled to the benefits of coverage under such policies, in accordance with their terms and conditions. These may include advancement of the reasonable expenses of responding to a lawsuit or investigation where the Company does not advance such expenses.

Consistent with the policies previously applied by the Company, in the event you become subject to any legal proceeding or investigation relating to your service to the Company, you must promptly notify the Company in writing. Notices should be directed to the attention of Martha E. Solinger, Managing Director, Global Litigation at the above address. In such event, you will be advised by the Company of the specific actions to be taken by the Company pursuant to its indemnification policy.

The foregoing is only a general statement of Company policy, and the obligations of LBHI or any of its subsidiaries shall be as set forth in its organizational documents. The foregoing statement of policy does not apply with respect to Lehman Brothers Inc. or to any subsidiary of LBHI which is subject to a foreign insolvency or similar judicial proceeding, inasmuch as such companies are no longer under LBHI's control.
